BLAST AT MONTREAL TAKES THREE LIVES WHILE SCORES HURT

Gasoline Explodes While Firemen Fight Small Fire in Garage—Crowds Throng Street in Busy Shopping Area—Buildings Blown In and Glass Shattered for Blocks

MONTREAL, June 25 (P).—Death and destruction broke loose with bewildering suddenness today as hundreds of persons stood watching firemen battle a blaze at the Laurier Avenue Garage in the heart of North Montreal's shopping area.

From behind a screen of smudgy smoke a devastating gas explosion shattered the street. One fireman was killed outright. Two others died later from their injuries. More than 100 persons were treated at hospitals and more than a score were kept there, some in a critical condition, including Fire Chief Christopher Carson.

EXPLOSION IN GARAGE
 With the suddenness of a bomb exploding on a busy street, the blast blew out the front of the garage, showered the street with chunks of concrete and metal, bowled over scores of men, women and children who had gathered to watch the firefighters, and smashed every pane of glass for a block around.

Just how many persons were injured could not be estimated accurately tonight. Many were treated on the spot by internes and ambulance crews rushed to the scene, and went to their homes. It was only a matter of seconds that the street, thronged for a block with shoppers and passers-by, was blasted into a shambles. The crowd had gathered as fire trucks roared to the scene and firemen began to stem a spreading fire, believed to have originated from escaping gasoline fumes. The

STALIN KISSES POLAR FLYERS

Head of Soviet Union Welcomes Dr. Schmidt and Companions Home

MOSCOW, June 25 (P).—Joseph Stalin yielded to impulse today when he greeted heavily-bearded Dr. Otto J. Schmidt, home-coming leader of the Soviet Union's successful North Pole expedition, with a kiss full on the lips.

The kissing was not confined to Stalin and the chief of the band of heroes from the North Pole. Klement E. Voroshilov, Commissar for War; Premier V. M. Molotov and other Government leaders exchanged embraces and kisses with several members of the expedition.

This was the climax of a spectacular welcome of the nation's leaders for the thirty-one men who last month flew to the North Pole, landed there and established an observation base for the Soviet Union at the top of the world.

LANDING WELLED TIME
 The homecoming went off like clockwork. The expedition, flying non-stop from Anchorage, was due at 5 p.m. Just at that hour the four planes, three huge twenty-four-ton craft and a smaller pathfinder plane, appeared in the distance. Ten minutes later Salin, riding alone in a big car and followed by two cars of guards, arrived at the Frunze military airfield on the outskirts of Moscow. He appeared in robust health.

Wing-Commander Charlton Halliwell, of the British Embassy, and an American attaché were the only foreign attaches invited. It was explained this was because Valery Chkalov and his two companions passed over British Empire and United States territory in their recent flight from Moscow to Vancouver, Wash.

OBSERVATORY WINS PRAISE

Robert Meldrum Stewart Declares All Canada Proud Of Work Done Here

All Canada has reason to be proud of the work that is being done at the Astrophysical Observatory, Victoria, says Robert Meldrum Stewart, director of the Dominion Observatory, Ottawa, who reached Victoria yesterday afternoon in the course of one of his periodical inspection tours to the West.

"We have in Canada, at Toronto and Victoria, respectively, the second and third largest telescopes in the world, and the work being done at these two places is quite in keeping with the size of the instruments," he said.

MORE THAN JUSTIFIED
 "Both are more than justifying themselves, particularly that in Victoria, which, being the senior in point of age, has had better opportunity to prove itself. The observatory at Toronto is still young, but we hope for big things from it." This latter reference was to the new David Dunlap Memorial Observatory, which, although it has not yet published much concerning its work, was specializing in radial velocities, much along the same lines as the Astrophysical Observatory in Victoria.

The Ottawa scientists, says Mr. Stewart, follow with the greatest

COLIN CLIVE HAS ACTED LAST ROLE

Distinguished English Actor Succumbs at Early Age to Illness At Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, June 25 (P).—Colin Clive, thirty-seven, distinguished English actor who created some of the most sympathetic roles on stage and screen, died in a hospital today from pulmonary disorders.

He never fully recovered from an attack of pneumonia a year ago.

His wife, Jeanne de Casalis, French actress, is in London.

Clive was reported to have earned about a half-million dollars in the last few years portraying characters the public would dislike. His greatest stage role was that of Captain Stanhope, in "Journey's End." This he played in London. Later, he enacted the same role on the screen. He was the star in the films "Frankenstein," "Clive of India," "The Man Who Broke the Bank of Monte Carlo," and numerous others.

British Columbia to Have $900,000 Share In Defence Contract

That Amount to Be Expended in Province on New Work and Maintenance for Department, Says Acting Minister Rogers

OTTAWA, June 25 (P).—In addition to any contracts that may be let for supplies, British Columbia's share for new construction and maintenance for the Dominion Department of National Defence would involve an expenditure of approximately $900,000, according to Hon. Norman Rogers, acting Minister.

It was stated reports had reached the minister of disappointment in British Columbia that only a small portion of the contracts for supplies had gone to that province. British Columbia, Mr. Rogers said, had received a reasonable share, having regard to the highly specialized character of the supplies required by the department.

About one-quarter of the $33,730,000 voted by Parliament to be expended by the department during the current fiscal year has been accounted for in contracts let during recent weeks, it was learned. The work has been widely scattered throughout the Dominion, and no detailed statements have been made. In addition to the normal maintenance of defence measures, the

Display by School Board At Royal Athletic Park Attracts 2,500 Persons

Contribution to City's Anniversary Features 2,000 Students in Events

LOUD PRAISE GIVEN YOUNG PERFORMERS

More than 2,000 public school and Victoria High School pupils actively participated in Victoria School Board's gigantic physical display at Royal Athletic Park yesterday afternoon. Grandstand, bleachers and field held a crowd estimated at 2,500 persons. Thunderous applause greeted the ten events held to mark the city's seventy-fifth anniversary of incorporation.

Union Jacks, flag-decorated shields, and red, white, blue, gold and purple bunting were used as decorations. An enormous flame-colored sunburst was effectively employed to conceal the entrance to a large section of the park boarded off for dressing rooms.

Behind the scenes were benches for the children, a first aid tent, rest rooms, lots of water, soap and towels for grubby hands, a refreshment stand and everything to make them comfortable while awaiting their turn to appear before the admiring throng. Black-lettered signs were effectively used to segregate the groups of performers. The field was

Police Head on Inspection Tour

VANCOUVER, June 25 (P).—Sir James H. MacBrien, commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, arrived in Vancouver at 4:55 p.m. today on an airplane tour of inspection.

Sir James said he would spend several days in Vancouver, then visit Victoria before returning East.

Rocket Filled With Hating Gases May Be Shot 300 Miles

LOS ANGELES, June 25 (P).—A new rocket propelled by two gases "that hate each other" was ready today for a flight its inventor predicted would take it 300 miles above the earth.

The inventor is Maurice Poirier, of Burbank. He said he would take the projectile to some lonely stretch of shoreline and start it toward the regions of space. It is equipped with recording instruments and a parachute.

"It has tanks filled with two types of liquified gas that hate each other," he said. "The power will generate in the tremendous rapid expansion of the released mixture of these two. Neither gas burns." He declined to identify the two gases.

Ferry Services To U.S. Ports to Start on Sunday

Settlement of Boatmen's Strike Announced at Seattle—Connections Between Victoria and Port Angeles and Between Sidney and Anacortes Expected to Be Restored Tomorrow

SETTLEMENT of the inland boatman's union strike, announced at Seattle last night, was expected here to result in early resumption of two services between Vancouver Island and United States ports. While no advices had been received by officials of the company concerned here, it was expected the Victoria-Port Angeles-Seattle and Sidney-Anacortes passenger and motor car ferry services would be resumed on Sunday. Definite announcement was expected today.

HEAVY RAINS END EAST HEAT WAVE

Temperatures Tumble in Most of Middle-West States After Many Deaths Reported

CHICAGO, June 25 (P).—Heavy rains and shifting winds broke the season's most intense heat wave in the Middle West today, and relief came to most of the area from the Rockies to the Great Lakes after twenty-one deaths had been attributed to the sultry siege.

Showers doused huge sections of the Dakotas, Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa, Indiana and Ohio, with cooler conditions in those and Minnesota, Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. A return to normal was expected overnight in Kansas and Missouri. The precipitation ended five days of "plus 100" weather in Nebraska. Basements were flooded, highways covered and riverside lowlands inundated by the downpour in the vicinity of Marion, Bucyrus, Willard and Sandusky, Ohio.

ASHES ARE SCATTERED

SOUTHAMPTON, June 25 (P).—From a giant flying boat that he helped develop, the ashes of Sir Eric Geddes were scattered over the English Channel last night, as the Caledonia soared from England about its business of flying the Empire air routes, it was announced today.

Italian Ship Is Rammed By Spaniard

GENOA, June 25 (P).—The Italian steamship Capo Pino was rammed and sunk last night by the Spanish Government freighter Magallanes, off Nagara Point, in the Dardanelles, the Genoa Navigation Company, owners of the sunken vessel, reported today.

The twelve passengers and thirty crew members aboard the 5,000-ton Capo Pino, bound with a cargo of wheat for Genoa and Marseille, France, were saved. The Magallanes, 10,000-ton freighter, which carried a cargo of munitions from Mexico to Spain recently, proceeded towards Russia.

Queen Mother Says Kipling Memorial Fund to Be Raised

LONDON, June 25 (P).—Queen Mother Mary and her brother, the Earl of Athlone, announced today a fund of £250,000 ($1,250,000) would be raised for a memorial to Rudyard Kipling.

Ionized Ray Sending Out Huge Flares

DENVER, June 25 (P).—Discovery of electric currents, that shoot out from bright spots on the sun, in the form of ionized rays, and flow to the earth carrying enough electricity from a single spot to light the city of Chicago, were reported to the American Association for the Advancement of Science here today.

These bright spots are flares of flame as big as the earth. They last only a few minutes. Their ionizing rays are ten times stronger than the rays from the rest of the sun.

BOMBARDED BY FOREIGN SHIP

Spanish Government Reports Shelling of Town—Insurgents Repulse Attack

MADRID, June 25 (P).—The Febus (Spanish Government) News Agency reported that a warship, "believed to be foreign," shelled the town of Arenys de Mar, on the Northeastern Spanish Coast, last night.

Although a Government communiqué described the bombardment as a "recurrence of insurgent naval activity," the agency report said the ship must have been foreign.

Of "great size," the ship had two funnels, so it could not have been the insurgent cruiser Canarias, which has only one funnel, the report said.

Three houses were reported destroyed at Arenys de Mar and two other houses along the coast shattered.

REPULSE ATTACK

SEVILLE, Spain, June 25 (P).—Insurgent troops repulsed a heavy attack by Government forces in the Ordivia sector, near Granada, tonight.

Insurgents said the attackers, commanded by a Russian officer, struck heavily at an insurgent mobile battery in the heights of Lujar Brioso.

The Government soldiers were reported to have lost forty men, with many wounded and taken prisoners. A quantity of rifles, small bombs and hand grenades was captured.

In the Cordoba sector, south of Madrid, insurgent flyers dropped leaflets describing insurgent victories in the north of Spain.

WORKERS TAKING VOTE

VANCOUVER, June 25 (P).—Vancouver headquarters of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers' Union of British Columbia, announced today a poll was being conducted among the union's 4,000 members throughout the province, to decide whether the organization will break away from the American Federation of Labor and affiliate with John L. Lewis' committee for industrial organization.

Companies Report Several Thousand Men Return To Work, but Figures Denied by C.I.O. Officials—Troops to Stand By

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 25 (P).—Gates of steel mills in the Mahoning Valley swung open to non-strikers tonight and company officials estimated several thousand hurried back to work in a move unmarked by disturbances.

John Owens, C.I.O. Ohio organizer, disputed the statement that many workers returned.

"They (the steel companies) just shifted some men around," he said. Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. and Republic Steel Corp. resumed operations in their Youngstown plants.

Prime Minister Chamberlain Pleads for Moderation in Present Spanish Crisis Before Crowded Commons—Lloyd George Assails Activities Of Dictator Nations—Germany Preparing

Nazi Naval Strength Still Increasing in Danger Zone

LONDON, June 25 (P).—Moderation and calm in the present Spanish crisis were counseled by Prime Minister Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary Eden in a full dress debate on foreign policy in the House of Commons today. "The situation is serious but not hopeless," the Prime Minister said.

"I have read that in high mountains there are sometimes conditions to be found when an incautious move or even a sudden loud exclamation may start an avalanche," Chamberlain told a packed and tense Chamber.

"That is just the condition in which we find ourselves today. I believe that although the snow may be perilously poised, it has not yet begun to move and if we can all exercise caution, patience and self-restraint, we may yet be able to save the peace of Europe."

BOLSTERING MONEY PACT

British Parliament Asked to Increase Equalization Fund by $988,000,000

LONDON, June 25 (P).—The Government today asked Parliament to increase Great Britain's equalization fund by £200,000,000 ($988,000,000) to bolster its monetary agreement with the United States and France.

Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, presenting the request in the House of Commons, explained "there has been much financial disturbance abroad and a general tendency for capital funds to move to London."

STABILIZE STERLING
 Financial authorities said the move showed the Government was determined the fund must be sufficient sterling to buy all the gold, franc or other currencies offered, so the pound sterling will not rise too rapidly and upset its relations with the dollar and the franc under the tri-partite currency agreement of last Autumn.

Financiers saw in the increase assurance the Government will not permit funds from abroad, which may be withdrawn at any time, to endanger its rearmament programme or general recovery.

MAKES FUND LIQUID
 The French supply of sterling—which will raise the fund to £550,000,000—indicated sources said will make the fund liquid enough to meet any shocks if a movement develops later of foreign money away from London.

Ransom Plot, Says Lawyer Near Death

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (P).—Charles Reeder, fifty-one, who said he was an attorney, was near-death today, where he told an incoherent story of being held for ransom and tortured in a downtown apartment, police reported.

The man was found jack-knifed over a sharp iron rod at the foot of his folding bed, by the manager of the apartment house where he lived.

Police Inspector Jack Hart said Reeder has a gaping wound in his abdomen, apparently caused by a puncture of the rod.

Police said they were unable to find a pistol or any other weapon in the apartment.

PREMIER GUEST OF GOVERNMENT

Dines With French Heads Before Paying Personal Visit to Hitler

PARIS, June 25 (P).—Prime Minister Mackenzie King and Justice Minister Ernest Lapointe of Canada were dinner guests of the French Government tonight prior to the Canadian Premier's personal visit to Germany, during which he is to meet Chancellor Hitler, Foreign Minister Von Neurath, Air Minister Hermann Goering and other members of the German Cabinet.

TO MEET KING

Mackenzie King will leave tomorrow and return to Paris next week by way of Brussels after the Berlin discussions that are expected to consume some days. He will meet King Leopold and various cabinet ministers while in the Belgian capital.

Returning to Paris, Mackenzie King will officially open the Canadian pavilion at the World's Exposition on July 2 and will be entertained at lunch by Premier Chautemps on the same day.

The Canadian Premier began his series of discussions with heads of foreign governments in Washington before going to London to attend the Coronation and the Imperial Conference, where views were exchanged with Empire Prime Ministers. In Paris he met government heads.

NAZIS CHARGING PACT VIOLATION

Accusation Against Catholic Priest Expected to End Concordat With Vatican

BERLIN, June 25 (P).—The Nazi-controlled press tonight declared the Roman Catholic Church has violated the Reich-Vatican Concordat, and Catholics interpreted the dispatches as a new indication that the days of the pact are numbered.

The official German news agency reported Joseph Buerckel, Nazi district leader for the Saar Basin and one of Puercher Adolf Hitler's most trusted lieutenants, charged Ludwig Sebastian, Catholic Bishop of Speyer, violated the concordat.

Buerckel, the agency said, charged the bishop broke the pact by reporting to Rome matters having nothing to do with church affairs, and that the Vatican violated it by not calling him to order.

Chairman of Board Fears Loss of Life If Epidemic Comes

Serious Condition at Jubilee Hospital Stressed at Subscribers' Meeting by Colonel Hugh Allan
—Construction of New Wing Urged

A WARNING that the demand for hospital attention is fast exceeding the accommodation at Jubilee Hospital, and that in the event of an epidemic, the loss of life would be appalling, was sounded by Lieut.-Col. Hugh Allan, chairman of the board of directors, at the annual meeting of subscribers in the Nurses' Home, yesterday afternoon.

"During the last three years, hospital days have increased 25 per cent and the hospital was running at 90 per cent of its capacity last winter," said Colonel Allan.

"If we operate at 90 per cent capacity during the next three years and increase by 25 per cent, what is to happen?" he asked.

"I should be remiss if I did not bring this to your attention and sound a grave note of warning. Since it takes from two to three years to build, unless an immediate start is made a serious situation will develop in the case of an epidemic, and the loss of life will be appalling."

GOVERNMENT SYMPATHIC

"The Provincial Government has expressed its sympathy and admitted the necessity for action," Colonel Allan continued.

"All should realize the gravity of the situation and endeavor to strengthen the hands of those responsible, so no further delay may be permitted."

"The problem must be faced immediately," the speaker concluded. "We must construct a new wing to take care of hospital needs for the next ten or fifteen years."

The chairman's sentiments were later echoed by Captain George McGregor, whose resolution that plans be laid and funds secured, was endorsed.

PLANS BEING LAID

Colonel Allan explained that a committee already had the matter under consideration and would report at the next meeting of the board, which will be held July 16.

Mrs. E. Sheppard, Colonel Allan, Charles Williams and S. J. Drake were re-elected members of the board of directors.

Overcrowded conditions existing in the hospital were also stressed by Dr. T. W. Walker, superintendent, in his report.

"Nineteen thirty-six was a record-breaking year," asserted Dr. Walker, "and the hospital has been pressed to accommodate the sick who have presented themselves for treatment. Hospital days have soared to 110,494, an all-time high, and the average number of patients per day was 302. "Public wards have been crowded with extra beds. Their occupancy, including children's and maternity wards, has risen to 98.6 per cent. This is dangerous overcrowding. An emergency might exhaust all available bed space."

ACCOMMODATION TAXED

"Private and semi-private accommodation, too, has been taxed to the limit. The admitting office has been compelled on many occasions to request attending physicians to hold over cases, not emergencies, until pressure has eased up."

This overcrowding, which has not been caused by an epidemic, calls forcibly to your attention the need of extra accommodation."

Dr. Walker also declared the number of internes has been increased; that the accommodation at the Nurses' Home was full, and that there was difficulty in securing enough nurses for special duty or staff positions.

Regret at the passing of Dr. Norman Taylor, W. H. Kinsman and R. J. Jameson, all closely connected with the work of the hospital, was voiced by the superintendent.

"ON EVEN KEEL"

"The hospital is sailing on an even keel," commented J. Vaughan Roberts, honorary treasurer, after explanation of the auditor's report. The account for income and expenditure shows total receipts of $332,969.30, compared with $292,294.70 in 1935, and expenditures of $326,801.69, compared with $294,070.72 last year. The excess of revenue over expenditure is $6,167.71. Assets are valued at $1,351,941.43.

Mr. Roberts pointed out that following the usual practice, a reserve had been made against all patients' accounts due December 31, 1936. It is the policy of the board to make credit for these earnings only when they are actually received. The amount owing by the hospital is $32,652.38, compared with $34,165.07 last year.

antly," declaring the traveling public must bear additional cost of $170,000. Under the settlement, operators are permitted an immediate emergency rate increase of 10 per cent.

BOATMEN AGREED

Captain John M. Fox, secretary of the Inland Boatmen's Union, which previously accepted the plan, said he believed necessary crews would be ready for work tomorrow. The settlement gives the union men wage increases of $15 to $20 a month in most instances, alternate crews on five boats and a minimum nine-consecutive-hour day. A state investigation, ending not later than September 16, 1937, will determine permanent wage and hour conditions.

CAUTION NEEDED TO SAVE EUROPE

inclined. The United States had placed an embargo on the export of arms. He would leave it to the House to judge how far the French Government in the present circumstances would be prepared to go in supplying large quantities of war material for Spain. And then, he added, if non-intervention were dropped, belligerent rights would have to be granted, and the insurgent naval forces were overwhelmingly stronger than the Spanish Government's.

LOYD GEORGE SPEAKS

David Lloyd George assailed bitterly the activities in Spain of Germany and Italy, and said if the non-intervention agreement could not be enforced it would be better "to wind up the fraudulent pact and let the opposing Spanish forces buy their material where they can get it."

"We have heard a great deal about outrages upon warships," the wartime Premier declared. "I should like to know a little more about the 200 airplanes that devastated the Basque coast, the artillery that crashed away Bilbao."

"I used to hear Sir Austen Chamberlain ask what was the good of making a pact with Germany when it would be kept only as long as it suited her. I am sorry to say that during the last few months Germany has done her best to justify the suggestion."

Chamberlain promised the Government would work to two ends: To fill in the gap left in the non-intervention patrol when Germany and Italy withdrew and to renew efforts to withdraw foreign volunteers from Spain.

PLEADS FOR CARE

He appealed to those "who hold responsible positions in this country and abroad to weigh their words very carefully before they utter them, bearing in mind the consequences that might flow from some rash phrase," and congratulated the German Government on showing "a degree of restraint we should all recognize" over the alleged attempt to torpedo the cruiser Leipzig.

He admitted non-intervention had failed, but at the same time declared the scheme had done its most important task—it had kept the war in Spain from spreading. British policy, he said, had but one aim—to keep the peace of Europe by keeping the war within Spain.

Before the House met, Great Britain and France were reported to have determined to bring the Spanish crisis into the open and question Germany and Italy pointedly on why their naval forces are manoeuvring in Spanish waters.

Latest reports from Gibraltar and other naval bases led to expressions of fear in both London and Paris that the increase of German naval forces around Spain might mean that an independent blockade of Valencia, seat of the Spanish Government, was planned.

ASSEMBLES BIG FLEET

On the basis of reports, it was estimated four-fifths of the entire German navy would soon be in the vicinity of Spain.

Two German cruisers and five destroyers passed Gibraltar during the night, and early today were apparently heading for a rendezvous with other warships in the Mediterranean. One of the cruisers was identified as the Nürnberg. The destroyers were the Tiger, Falke, Albatros, Endor and Greif.

WOULD FILL GAP

LONDON, June 25 (AP).—Great Britain and France have decided to use their own warships to fill the gap in the "Hands Off Spain" sea patrol, which was created by Italian-German withdrawal, it was learned tonight.

The Franco-British move to extend the supervisory warship cord by themselves, means they will take over patrolling the eastern, or Government-held coast of Spain, where Germany and Italy left off.

The cord is intended to help keep foreign arms ships from delivering their cargoes in Spain. Germany and Italy washed their hands of the patrol because the Spanish Government's armed forces bombed their ships and allegedly tried to torpedo the German cruiser Leipzig.

France and Great Britain intend to notify the non-intervention committee of their plan at its next meeting. Britain also is willing to consider the placing of neutral observers on each patrol ship. Italy and Germany still are on the non-intervention committee.

ITALY STATES POSITION

ROME, June 25 (AP).—An Italian official declared tonight both Italy and Germany would look with disfavor on any independent steps to fill the gap in the "Hands Off Spain" sea patrol, left by their withdrawal from the international fleet.

Because both nations remained on the neutrality committee when they withdrew their warships from its fleet, the spokesman said, they must be consulted before any steps are taken to reorganize the naval patrol.

BERLIN STATEMENT

BERLIN, June 25 (AP).—A German Foreign Office spokesman said today the Reich had demanded the international non-intervention committee take steps to prevent foreign arms and volunteers from reaching Spanish Government forces.

Although no longer a member of the "Hands Off Spain" naval patrol, Germany insists control of foreign participation in the Spanish civil war be "really effective," the spokesman said.

He declared the initiative in devising effective control measures now lies with Great Britain and France, because the German navy cannot be expected to do anything except protect German ships from "acts of piracy."

TOUR PARTIES ENROUTE WEST

Several Organized Groups
Coming to Coast During The Next Week

VANCOUVER, June 25.—Traveling by special train through Vancouver to the Canadian Rockies, 150 members of the Movie News Happiness Tour will arrive from Seattle at 6:30 p.m. Monday, spend Monday night in the city, and will leave by Canadian Pacific lines at 11 a.m. Tuesday for Chicago and New York, by way of the Rockies. Stopovers have been arranged at Banff and Lake Louise.

Another American party is due to arrive from Seattle by way of Victoria at 7 a.m. Sunday, leaving Vancouver by the Canadian Pacific's train No. 2 at 10 a.m. Sunday for Banff and Lake Louise. This party comprises twenty-five members of Chicago & Northwestern-Union Pacific Tour No. 1, and will be the first of several such tours arranged by these lines.

Carrying 175 passengers, an American Express Banner Tour will be handled in a special train over Canadian Pacific lines, leaving Vancouver for Lake Louise and Banff at 5:40 p.m. Tuesday. The party will arrive at 2:15 p.m. Tuesday. Another big party, eighty members of Powers "Around America" Tour No. 1, is due June 30, leaving at 10 a.m. Wednesday for Banff and Lake Louise by Canadian Pacific lines. This party will be followed, July 5, by fourteen members of Bullington Escorted Tour No. 22, arriving from Seattle and Victoria at 5:55 p.m. and leaving Vancouver by the "Mountaineer" at 6:35 p.m. July 5.

Interest in the work in Victoria with the seventy-two-inch telescope.

Under departmental reorganization carried out last autumn, seismological work through the Dominion was consolidated under the Department of Mines and Resources. Part of Mr. Stewart's mission during his present trip is to inspect astronomical work as well as visit astronomical observatories. With this object he stopped off, en route West, to visit seismological stations in the neighborhoods of Saskatoon and Edmonton. In Victoria, in addition to visiting the Astrophysical Observatory, he will inspect the seismograph at the Meteorological Observatory at Gonzales Hill.

HELPFUL INTEREST

One phase of astronomical work in which Mr. Stewart is much interested is that among amateur students. The fact that Victoria had such an enthusiastic branch of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada was, he thought, due in large measure to the helpful interest always shown in them by the local observatory staff, which had done much to stimulate and foster enthusiasm in the study among laymen.

"Miss Australia" On Way Home

OTTAWA, June 25 (AP).—Miss Sheila Martin, twenty-one, of Wagga Wagga, Australia, who turned down motion picture offers from British and United States producers, told the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club today how she was chosen to represent her country at the Coronation.

The trip had been sponsored by an Australian newspaper as a Coronation gesture, and the girl chosen was to represent Australia in mind and stature. Other qualifications were efficiency in sport, education, stature and good manners. The tests were not those given to bathing beauties, she said.

After the Coronation, which she witnessed from a seat in Westminster Abbey, she visited France and Ireland. She left tonight for Toronto, and will go from there to Chicago and thence to Vancouver.

Junior High School To Be Established By Board This Year

School Trustees Decide Not to Inaugurate Second Institution at Oaklands in Addition to Boys' and Girls' Central Schools

JUNIOR high schools will not be established in September at Oaklands as well as Boys' and Girls' Central Schools, the school board decided yesterday afternoon. Under a modified plan of George H. Deane, municipal inspector, it was agreed to inaugurate a junior high school only at Boys' and Girls' Central Schools. The scheme was approved on Thursday by Dr. S. J. Willis, superintendent of education.

It was moved by Trustee Percy E. George, seconded by Trustee Walter E. Stenland, that the following eight clauses in a report by Mr. Deane be adopted:

"That the proposed Boys' Junior High School and Girls' Junior High School be merged into one school as Central Junior High School, with a principal and vice-principal.

"That both buildings be provided with the facilities necessary to accommodate pupils of both sexes.

"That, conditional on efficient organization, the Girls' Central Building be used for academic classes and that shops and laboratories be centralized at the Boys' School (to include only one science laboratory).

COMBINED LIBRARY

"That one large combined library and study hall, with accommodation for two classes, be provided in the Boys' School. Such arrangement will permit the planning of a principal and vice-principal for supervisory and other important duties without increasing materially the estimated costs.

"That, as far as the board's finances permit, the library grant be increased to an amount sufficient to provide adequate facilities.

"That the enrollment at the proposed Central Junior High School be increased by the addition of one or two classes comprising pupils living outside the defined Central Junior High School district.

"That the principal and the vice-principal have ready, before schools reopen in September, a carefully-prepared allotment of work which will include electives necessary for exploratory work and individual adjustments—a programme adapted to meet the aims and objectives of the Junior High School as set forth in the new curriculum.

"That during the forthcoming term the principal and vice-principal be given the opportunity of visiting efficient junior high schools and studying their organization."

Mr. Deane pointed out to the board that six rooms were available at Boys' Central School and ten at Girls' Central School for junior high school purposes.

The board decided to increase the library grant to $1,000, if finances permitted.

Establishment of a junior high school at Oaklands was deferred, pending the result of a survey of educational costs and facilities of Greater Victoria by the Department of Education.

Sir Francis Floud Tells of Problems Faced for Recovery

High Commissioner to Canada Relates Economic Achievements of United Kingdom in Address To Men's Canadian Club Members Here

DEALING with some of the problems that Britain had to overcome during the dark days immediately following 1929, in order to furnish a background to illustrate the economic achievements in the United Kingdom that paved the way for permanent recovery, Sir Francis Floud, C.B., K.C.B., British High Commissioner to Canada, addressed a luncheon of the Victoria Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Sir Francis, who was connected with the departments of labor and agriculture during the depression years, was able to speak with a good deal of authority of the problems associated with those important ministries of the British Government. He referred to conditions in 1930 and the four years after in which the British people were called upon to make sacrifices. In 1930, he said, the country was just nearing the crisis and was faced with a $645,000,000 deficit in the budget which called for stern and drastic action in the nature of increased taxation and real economies.

BUILDING ARMAMENTS

The government, he asserted, was able to stem the tide by those stern measures, which were carried out under the direction of the late Chancellor Snowden, and bring about recovery, one of the most remarkable achievements of any country in the world. The country, he continued, was now engaged in an enormous programme, regretted it is true, but nevertheless necessary. The building of armaments, Sir Francis said, had become inevitable because of the rise of rival dictators in Europe and the threats and rumors of war. The British people for some years to come would have to bear the burden of debt. In Canada, he remarked, the people were more fortunate. The debt per capita in the Old Country was $75 and in Canada only $25. "Our people fully realize these debts are part of the penalty we must pay for our position, the necessity of maintaining a strong navy to protect the trade routes and the difficulties connected with administration of India."

UNEMPLOYMENT

He referred to unemployment as a tragedy that had depressed the country to an extent that was hard to realize unless those outside had seen for themselves the conditions existing in South Wales, Lancashire and in parts of Scotland. The figure of unemployment, he stated, had been cut by one half since 1932, and more men were employed in the United Kingdom today than in the previous history of the country. "But all this trouble had brought about a new spirit of community interest," he declared.

Sir Francis reviewed the development of social services since 1900, mentioning health insurance which was taking care of approximately 20,000,000 persons. Unemployment insurance, he remarked, had destroyed the idea of demoralization by the dole. England has constructed 3,000,000 new homes to re-house approximately one-quarter of its population, which meant an enormous expenditure which the people believed was well spent.

CAPITAL AND LABOR

The speaker also reviewed relations between capital and labor. During his term, he said, he became well acquainted with labor leaders and said employers had come to realize the great value of responsible trade union movements. Sir Francis also spoke of conditions in agriculture and the 1932 trade agreement with Canada. He mentioned it was necessary to give first place in buying to the home producer and second place to Empire producers.

Of migration from the Old Land to the Dominion, Sir Francis said it was practically a question for the Canadian Government and the Canadian people to say when they were prepared to reopen the doors. The British Government, he believed, was only too ready to co-operate in negotiations between the two countries, speaking of Britain and Canada. "What you want in Canada is people from the British Isles having the same traditions as you have here, and who will want to make their homes here without looking towards the Motherland as their spiritual home." Mass migration, he asserted, was not likely to return.

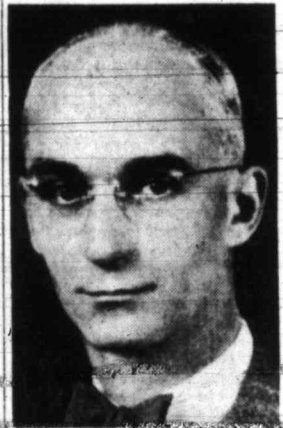

Speaking of conditions generally, Sir Francis said it was apparent it was not the thing to place the destinies of the whole of the Empire in London, and there was room for greater contributions by the Dominions overseas. "You, in Canada, are going to build a great nation that will make possible a contribution, not alone to the Old Country, but to the peace and prosperity of the whole world," he declared.

Sir Francis closed his address with a vivid picture of memories of his boyhood days in England. The speaker was introduced by Colonel H. T. Goodland, president of the Canadian Club, and the votes of thanks were proposed by Lindley Crease, K.C. Hon. K. C. MacDonald represented the Province of British Columbia, in the absence of the Prime Minister.

Boys Vacationing at "Camp Thunderbird" Offered Rare Treat

—Photograph by Cheryl F. VIVIAN SHOEMAKER

With a background of towering mountains and a huge bonfire fashioning weird fantastic shadows on Glna Lake, lads who attend the annual Y.M.C.A. Summer "Camp Thunderbird" next month, will be treated to authentic tales of the early Sooke Indians, interwoven with the folklore of the Island's first inhabitants, by the descendants of a powerful chief.

Perhaps of more vital interest to the young vacationists will be the instruction in totem pole carving and Indian handicraft which will be given by Mrs. Tuttle and Francis Lazar, daughter and son of old Chief Lazar of the Sooke Indians. Familiar with the many legends and early history of their tribe, they will be able to impart, not only historical knowledge, but stories of such interest as to capture the imagination of any youngster.

CAMP FOR BOYS

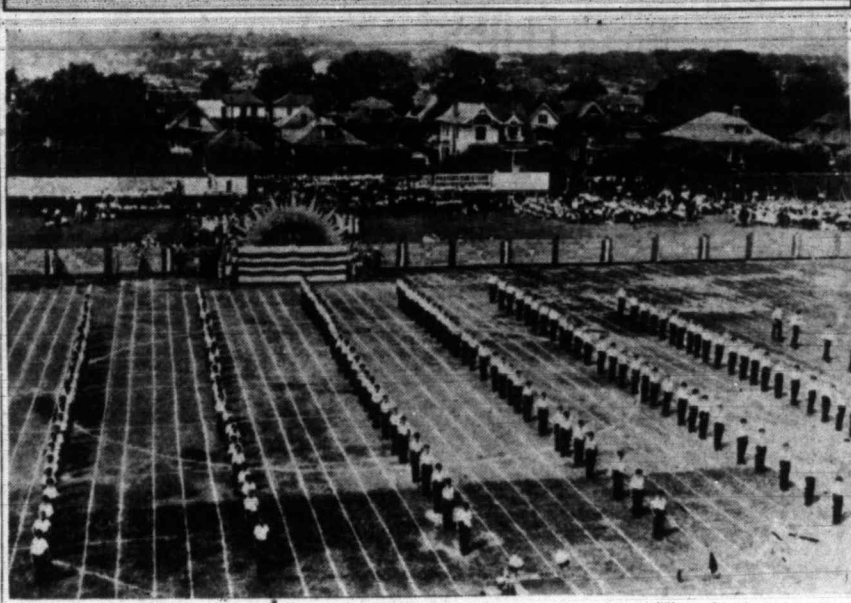

The camp for boys will be held from July 12 to 26 for the seniors, and from July 27 to August 5 for the junior boys. Both seasons will be under the personal supervision of F. Vivian Shoemaker, boys' work secretary of the local Y.M.C.A.

Lynn Patrick and Jack Allison will be the senior leaders, assisted by C. Tredwell, Doyle McKimm, Harold Rose, Lorne McGregor, Don Davidson, in charge of swimming, and C. S. Crosby as first aid instructor. Other features of the camp will include a complete programme of recreation, including games, hikes, swimming, with interest groups being conducted in life-saving, first aid, radio, nature study and photography.

SCHOOL DISPLAY BIG ATTRACTION

marked off in white lines to facilitate precision in the numbers featuring drill and exercises.

LIVELY MUSIC

Lively music was furnished by George H. E. Greene's Boys' Band, in smart uniforms of red and blue. The 5th Regiment (B.C.) Coast Brigade Band in full uniform, led by Bandmaster Alfred Prescott, and a five-piece pipe band from the 1st Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment. Several marches were also played over a public address system used to direct the children.

W. C. Moresby, K.C., chairman of the school board, was the first to congratulate Major A. C. Hinton, supervisor of physical education, and George H. Deane, municipal inspector, upon whose shoulders rested the success of the display. They were assisted by Miss Nancy Ferguson, Joseph Ross, W. H. Moresby, and a number of teachers.

Major Hinton pointed out inclement weather of the past prevented holding a rehearsal of the display, and success of the event was due entirely to natural ability, control and discipline of the children. He paid tribute to the loyal co-operation of elementary school teachers, whose spare time had been cut short by the new school curriculum.

MAYOR PRESENT

Mayor Andrew McGavin, Chief Thomas Heatley and Mrs. Heatley, members of the school board and City Council were interested spectators.

After more than 2,000 voices were lifted in "O Canada," children from Grades I and II gave an interesting display of mimetic exercises. Their imitations of the actions and sounds of domestic animals and birds showed keenly developed powers of observation.

Led by Joseph Rose giving commands through the public address system, 270 cadets in blue uniforms and white shirts went through the actions of Swedish drill. Their caps were smartly drawn through their belts. Co-ordination of movement and control was expressed in every act.

BOW TO AUDIENCE

Nearly 500 girls in white dresses, and boys in blue trousers and white shirts, went through the intricate actions of the folk dance, "Haymakers." At the conclusion, they gravely bowed and danced off the field in pairs to a lively air.

Senior girls of Oaklands and South Park Schools, numbering seventy-five, dressed in various soft shades of red, white and blue, gave a rhythmic demonstration of arm and foot exercises and orderly counter-marching.

Twelve girls arrayed in gold-colored cloth, overlaid with shimmering gold foil, danced in, bearing

May Fire Losses Show Increase in Department Data

FIRE losses last month were $2,832,76, compared with $189 in May, 1936. Fire Chief Alex Munroe's monthly report shows. There were forty-three alarms during May, three of which were false. Fire losses since January 1 were $53,769.06, compared with $13,817.30 during the first five months of 1936. The Postoffice and Cameron Lumber Company fires this year caused the increase, the chief stated. Although losses were higher this year, he asserted the insured loss was approximately $3,000 less than January to May in 1936.

a large golden orb in the interpretive dance, "Alliance to the Crown." As they took up their positions in the centre of the field, 125 dancers, in costumes of yellow, blue, mauve and pink, wore in and out around those bearing the orb.

In the finale, the orb bearers stretched out gold streamers in the form of the Royal Crown. In reverent fashion they stepped backwards to disappear behind the sunburst covering the exit and entrance.

Boys and girls from Grades III and IV, dressed in blue and white, filled the entire park. The effect of their movements to the beat of a drum and cymbal stressed perfect timing and co-ordination. Boys and girls from Boys' Central, Sir James Douglas and George Jay Schools gave a lively flag drill with crossed Union Jacks. They formed a square to admit girls rhythmically waving red, white and blue streamers.

In the next event, 375 boys and girls from intermediate classes went through the paces of the folk dances, "Durham Reel" and "Merry Milkmaids." Like its name, the reel filled the field with groups tripping the light fantastic in small circles. After the dance representing milkmaids, they danced lightly towards the exit.

Attired in white dresses with tartan bandoliers, girls in the final event executed the folk dance, "Dashing White Sergeant," to the tune of a pipe band.

The 5th Regiment (B.C.) Coast Brigade Band and Mr. Greene's Boys' Band brought the display to a close with the National Anthem. Spectators filed out, loud in their praise of the children's efforts.

Presentation To Pastor by Congregation

The congregation of Metropolitan United Church gave eloquent testimony to their appreciation of and affection for Rev. E. F. Church and Mrs. Church at a ceremony in the church schoolroom on Wednesday evening when they presented their retiring pastor and his wife with a case of flat silver.

About 250 were present. Dr. W. E. Harper was in the chair, and Herbert Pendray made the presentation speech, supplementing this by paying heartfelt tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Church and wishing them happiness in their new life in Vancouver, where Mr. Church is taking over the pastorate of Chown United Church. A. J. Daniels, superintendent of the Sunday School, assisted at the presentation ceremony.

During the evening brief farewell messages were brought from other congregations of the city, among the speakers being Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson, of First United Church; Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, of Christ Church Cathedral; Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie, president of the Victoria Ministerial Association; Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell, a former pastor of Metropolitan Church; and Arthur Lee, president of Victoria Presbytery.

A musical programme was much enjoyed, those taking part being Miss Dorothy Parsons and Dr. T. Harry Johns, who gave vocal solos, accompanied at the piano by Edward Parsons; and Miss Maquinn Daniels, who gave piano solos. Mrs. Church was presented by Mrs. W. E. Harper with a corsage bouquet, and Mr. Church feelingly responded to the many cordial expressions.

B.C. RELIEF IS GROWING LESS

May Totals in Province Only Half of the Registrations At Peak Enrollment

British Columbia and its municipalities assisted a total of 65,027 persons in May, compared with 128,500 individuals in March 1933, provincial relief officers disclosed yesterday, after a check of reports from all centres of the province.

The totals were made up of 39,940 dependents, 14,707 heads of families, and 10,380 single men; exclusive of 196 others assisted with one night's lodging.

CUT IN HALF

May relief totals for the province were within thirty persons of the lowest on record in British Columbia since 1921, and exactly half of the peak registration of March, 1933. Further diminution of the totals is expected during the Summer months.

Meanwhile, 562 young men between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five had made application for training under the forestry plan, and 282 others under the placer mining camp scheme, it was said. Both plans are distinct from relief measures, the training is still open.

BLAST AT MONTREAL CLAIMS THREE LIVES

blaze, preceded by a muffled explosion, was comparatively minor.

For twenty minutes firemen pumped water into a corner of the six-story garage. The crowd had increased to a couple of thousand. Street cars, bound for the race track, were held in line about 100 yards from the scene. Police had just started to reroute traffic and to clear the street of pedestrians.

STORES BLOWN IN

Suddenly there was a deafening blast. The front part of the first two floors of the garage was showered onto the street. Scores of on-lookers were struck by flying debris. Big windows of a dozen stores were blown in. Glass in windows of flats and apartments above the shops was shattered.

Momentarily, the crowd stood stunned, then broke into confusion. Many had been knocked out by flying debris or had fainted. Panic-stricken, the spectators fled down the side-streets. Glass and pulverized concrete were everywhere.

Left in the littered streets were scores of injured. Slowly, the crowd began to return. Rescue work was begun.

"As the crowd cleared we thought a couple of hundred had been killed," said Fred Clermont, one of the first to return to the scene.

"It was the firemen we found hard to reach. Some of those were buried beneath those big chunks of cement. Chief Carson was half-buried there. I helped pull him out."

FIREMEN KILLED

"Then I saw them carrying out another fireman (Armand Senecal). He was dead. Another fellow, Fireman A. LePage, later died in hospital. It was the worst thing I've ever seen."

About 100 persons were taken to seven hospitals for treatment. Numerous others were treated by district doctors in stores on door-steps, on running boards of motor cars. Gradually, firemen turned back to the blaze. Many of them wore bandages on heads, arms and faces. The fire never gained much ground. Mostly, it was centred in a corner of the garage, dangerously close to the tanks holding some 2,000 gallons of gasoline.

A dozen store fronts were ruined. Insurance adjusters said the damage would run into "thousands of dollars," but they could give no definite estimate until completion of inventories.

On account of the Japanese national education policy that requires a recognition of Shintoism in the schools, the school operated by the Presbyterian Church in Canada at Tansui, Formosa, has been transferred to the Japanese Government.

ANNUAL CAMP WILL OPEN ON DOMINION DAY

Units From Military District No. 11 to Go Under Canvas at Sidney

TACTICAL SCHEME TO BE UNDERTAKEN

With units from many points on the Island and Lower Mainland taking part, a training camp will be held at Sidney, July 1-4, under the command of Brigadier D. J. MacDonald, D.S.O., M.C., O.C. M.D. No. 11, Work Point Barracks. The men will enter camp in the evening of Wednesday, June 30.

Units taking part will be First Battalion, Canadian Scottish; Second Battalion (M.G.), Canadian Scottish; Westminster Regiment; 11th Divisional Signals, H.P.C.S.; 6th Division, R.C.A.M.C.; Irish Fusiliers (Vancouver Regiment); B.C. Regiment (D.C.O.R.); First Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, and the 6th Field Company, R.C.E.

Island points representing the Second Battalion, Canadian Scottish, are Courtenay, Alberni, Port Alberni, Nanaimo, Chemainus, Duncan, Shawnigan Lake, Sooke, Mari-gold and Salspring Island. Victoria will be represented by the First Battalion Scots. The above-mentioned units will be transported to Sidney by bus on Wednesday evening.

Training under unit arrangements will be held July 1 and 2, while the entire camp will bivouac near Deep Cove on the evening of July 2, and participate in a tactical scheme which will be continued on the morning of the third. Saturday afternoon they will return to Sidney.

A church parade will be held on Sunday morning, with the afternoon being devoted to a sports programme, followed by the breaking up of camp. The Canadian Scottish officers' mess will hold its usual dinner on Saturday.

July 5 to 10, the Second Battalion (M.G.), C.S.R. and Westminster Regiment will go to Heals Range for a machine gun camp.

CAMP STAFF

Assisting Brigadier MacDonald on the camp staff will be: G.S.O. Major J. C. Murchie, R.C.A.; A.A. and Q.M.G. Lieut.-Col. C. W. Conroy, D.S.O.; C.S. and T.O. Lieut.-Col. H. R. W. APPOINTED TO CHAIRMANSHIP

Sir George Beharrell Is New Chief of Imperial Airways

LONDON, June 25 (C)—Sir George Beharrell, long prominent in transport and industry in the United Kingdom, today was appointed chairman of Imperial Airways in succession to Sir Eric Geddes, who died Tuesday.

Sir George is sixty-four and has been managing director of the Dunlop Rubber Company and a director of Imperial Airways. During the Great War he was assistant inspector-general of transportation in all theatres of war, and in 1921 was attached to the Geddes committee on national expenditure.

Sir George Beharrell's succession to the chairmanship of Imperial Airways recalls the dismissal from the civil service last August of Sir Christopher Bullock, permanent secretary to the Air Ministry and a member of the Air Council.

The report of the committee which investigated Sir Christopher's relations with Imperial Airways disclosed he had sought Sir Eric Geddes' advice in regard to his own future and had suggested he would like to succeed Geddes as chairman of the airline.

Bullock also suggested to the Marquess of Londonderry, then Secretary of State for Air, a high honor should be conferred on Geddes, the report disclosed. Geddes said he would welcome the honor if in recognition of his service in lining the Empire by air.

When Geddes' name did not appear in the next honors' list, Bullock told Geddes it would be conferred when an agreement between the Air Ministry and Imperial Airways was signed. Geddes replied he was not interested if the honor was to be a reward for negotiating the agreement.

Obituary

BARBOUR—The death occurred yesterday morning at his home, 39 Howe Street, of William Barbour, aged seventy-two years. He was born in Hillsburg, Ont., and had been a resident of this city for seventeen years. He leaves one daughter, Miss Pearl Barbour, R.N., at home; one sister, Mrs. W. A. McLachlan, and one brother, Ephraim Barbour, in Hillsburg. He was an elder and active worker of First United Church and a member of the Prairie Club and the Victoria Bowling Club. A funeral service will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock in McCall Bros' Funeral Chapel. Rev. John E. Bell will officiate and the remains will be forwarded to Hillsburg for interment in the family plot.

McGILL—Word has been received here of the death, at Berkeley, on June 21, of Miss Winnifred McGill, for several years on the teaching staff of Girls' Central School. Miss McGill was the daughter of the late Mary and Anthony McGill. Her father was former chief analyst for the Dominion at Ottawa. Miss McGill is survived by one sister, Miss Iris McGill, living at Ottawa.

Tired All the Time

Describes exhaustion of the nerves

The usual treatment for fatigue is rest. But when the cause of tired feelings is nervous exhaustion you are restless, sleepless and irritable and cannot rest or sleep. You can worry and fret, you can be impatient and ill-tempered, you may suffer from indigestion and headaches. But rest or calmness or sleep are well nigh impossible.

It is necessary to build up the reserve of nerve force by such restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Your nervous system has become bankrupt and new energy and vigor are necessary.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is recommended on the strength of its time-proven record of effectiveness in many thousands of cases similar to yours. New nerve force is created from rich red blood and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is composed of the very ingredients which go to enrich the blood. For this reason every dose you take should help you in regaining health and strength and new vitality.

SITUATION NOT HOPELESS

Again the Spanish war threatens to spread into an international conflict, and again Great Britain is appealing to other nations to control tempers and seek amicable settlement of grievances. This time it is the new British Prime Minister who is sounding the appeal. Mr. Chamberlain, in much the same manner as did Mr. Baldwin on similar occasions, is urging those who wield power in the chancelleries of Europe to "weigh their words very carefully before they utter them" and bear in mind "the rash consequences that might flow from some rash phrase." He sees the possibility of some incautious move starting "an avalanche that would tumble Europe into war."

Mr. Chamberlain made his statement in the House of Commons yesterday, throwing open to debate the whole question of the Spanish war and international non-intervention. He did not agree that the non-intervention policy had been a failure, nor would he agree that because there had been a rupture in the patrol system that the scheme was without value in confining the conflict within the borders of Spain. "Keep cool," he continued, as he promised the House that he would spare no effort to prevent spread of the war. British determination to view such situations dispassionately has prevailed before. It is to be hoped sincerely that European leaders will keep cool and move slowly in any direction that might carry a spark to the tinder.

FREEDOM'S LAMP

"The starboard light is shining bright, and all's well," the hall heard on many an old-time sailing vessel; is coming back to the English-speaking world in a new form, one redolent with pleasant associations and meaning. Nightly from London over the short-wave wireless network of the B.B.C. the voice of Big Ben speaks literally to the world. It seems to say in its unhurried, painstaking way: "Midnight here. Freedom's lamp is burning bright, and all's well!" In Great Britain, in India, in Canada, in Australia, in South Africa, in New Zealand, at Hongkong, in the Straits Settlements, wherever the Union Jack is seen by day, one can listen to the voice of faithful old Big Ben by night. It is not always night, save for Big Ben. In some dominions and possessions, the big fellow booms out midnight when day is breaking. It is not always the same hours. It is not always the same day as in London; but the voice of Big Ben is the same, unchanging and unchangeable. Big Ben has been a curtain-raiser to history. He has tolled with dignity the death of a beloved member of the Empire's household. He has swelled to peans of joy at the accession of a new monarch. He has carried not only London, but all that the British way stands for, into the farthest corners of the world. What was a few years ago the privilege and delight of only those who could gaze up at his tower, has now become a shared possession for the Empire, and the world if it will. Just thirty-six years ago since the first faint signal was sent across the Atlantic by Marconi. Only twelve years since the first international radio broadcast was put on the air. Since then Big Ben's voice has been growing louder, in widening and widening circles, with its message of calm and security for the world and its peoples. "Midnight," says Big Ben. "This ends another day. Freedom's lamp is burning bright, and all's well!" Well, indeed, for the world that there is a Big Ben; that there is a London, a British Commonwealth of Nations, a British way. The dogs of war would have had what is left of civilization several times in the last ten years had it not been for that Commonwealth of Nations, and its influence. So Big Ben speaks to the world, unhurried and unchanging, "Freedom's lamp is burning bright, and all's well!"

OUTLOOK FOR MR. DE VALERA

Observers of the political situation in the Irish Free State are finding it difficult to forecast the outcome of the general elections there on Thursday next. They seem agreed, however, that there will be no sweeping victory for President De Valera and his Finns. The general expectation is that Mr. De Valera's following will be reduced and that the Fine Gael, headed by former President William T. Cosgrave, with the support of the Labor Party and the Independents, possibly may be in a position to form a government.

Mr. De Valera is staking everything on his new constitution for all Ireland. The Fine Gael, the Labor Party which is headed by Mr. T. D. Norton, and the Independents, presided over by Alfred Byrne, Lord Mayor of Dublin, are opposing the new constitution. This constitution guarantees religious freedom and equality for all classes of the people, both North and South, and provides for a change of name from Irish Free State to Eire. Mr. De Valera's policy is one of self-sufficiency for Ireland and the establishment of additional factories and improved housing in rural and urban areas throughout the country. One of the articles that is not meeting favor is one giving the new president a seven-year term of office against five years for the Dail, and both the Fine Gael and the Labor Party resent what they term the dictatorial powers which would be conferred on the president. University and college-trained women are assailing several of the articles which were framed for the protection of the wives and mothers of Ireland. One is the paragraph prohibiting all possibility of civil divorce and refusing to recognize the validity of the remarriage in Ireland of one whose mate, divorced outside the country, remains alive. Mr. Cosgrave stands for a programme which would reap for Ireland the advantages of friendly relations and co-operation with other members of the British Commonwealth and a settlement with Great Britain covering the tariff, thus opening the world's greatest market for our surplus agricultural products. He promises to make investments in Irish industries secure, and provide increased and permanent employment for the people by developing stable political and economic conditions throughout the country.

The standing of the parties at the dissolution of the Dail was Finns 77, Fine Gael 58, Independent 10 and Labor 8. This is a total of 153. Under the new distribution of seats the number of deputies is reduced to 138. If Mr. De Valera meets with the reduction in his following that is predicted by observers, his Government will be in an uncomfortable position, to say the least. The increase in the cost of living, which is to blame for much of the new anti-Government sentiment, may result in a switch of Independent and Labor support in a bloc to the Fine Gael for the reduction of tariffs that is promised.

CANCER TREATMENT

The vast stores of radium in Canada "permit prophecy of matchless equipment for radium treatment of disease" was the encouraging statement made at the meeting in Ottawa of the Canadian Medical Association by the distinguished French radiologist, Dr. Antoine Lacassagne, of the Curie Institute of Paris. Fine progress has been made in the application of radiation to that most devastating of diseases, cancer. High percentage of cures are recorded in parts of the body formerly considered more or less outside the realm of surgery. Dr. Lacassagne said, however, that the further extension of radium's usefulness depended on the discovery of some new physical, chemical or biological aid not yet known. The laboratories of the world are keenly engaged in the quest of this priceless boon, and announcements are occasionally made of hopeful possibilities. Such is ensoil of the Connell-Hendray Foundation at Kingston, Ont. Happy will be the explorer who will do for cancer what Banting did for diabetes. Even now, as Sir Frederick suggests concerning his own isolation of insulin, a host of investigators are preparing the way for the fortunate man who will give the final coup of cancer.

TRIBUTE TO LADY BALDWIN

It is typical of Earl Baldwin to give full credit where credit is due, not by sentimental utterances but in sincere statements which not infrequently have a humorous twist without detracting from their sincerity. "I am so glad he said what he did about my wife," replied Baldwin in answer to Mr. Neville Chamberlain as he took farewell of the Conservative Party. "When I had been in Parliament seven years I said to her, 'I am no use in London, to God or man. I am going to throw this game up and live in the country, where I can be of some use.' She told me: 'You said you would stick it for ten years, then if you still think you are no good, I will agree to your going.' And so all that followed was really her fault. I do hope for the happiness of our old age she is satisfied with the handiwork."

In that statement he made it clear that he had committed himself to a life of service to God and man, that he was in Parliament as an avenue of such service, and that his wife was a source of inspiration and help at his side through tribulation and success. He wanted to succeed, not for the sake of success but for the contribution he might make to fellow man. He did succeed in a full measure, and for whatever success he had he does not forget the help he received from his wife. Now he has thrown up "this game" and is going to live in the country, he will continue to be "of some use."

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR

The Tennessee Senator has fixed the length and thickness of bacon to be served in that State. The prescribed measurements are designed to restore bacon to its historic place as a solid, substantial food. The name of the bill's author is not mentioned, but it is so cluttering down the ages just the same. He is a stalwart, he is a trencherman who deserves immortality. He has sounded the death-knell of denatured bacon.—St. Louis-Post Dispatch.

PROVINCE SIGNS FEDERAL PACT

Dominion and B.C. Continue Co-operation in Employment Offices

British Columbia signed its annual agreement with the Dominion yesterday respecting upkeep of employment services offices under a plan of joint contribution between Ottawa and Victoria, with the Dominion voting $150,000 for its share in the service for all Canada. Under the agreement, the province will continue its present free employment offices, with placement services staffed by some provincial and some federal officials.

FACT UNCHANGED
While a compact to create an Employment Service Council and local employment committees in each city over 25,000 persons, is still part of the agreement, this was explained as a dead-letter clause in so far as British Columbia is concerned. Some other provinces make use of the provision.

The agreement for 1937 is signed by Hon. Norman M. Rogers and Hon. G. S. Pearson, Ministers of Labor, for the Dominion and British Columbia, respectively. Its terms appear unchanged from 1936.

DISTINGUISHED ADMIRAL PASSES

Sir William Fisher, Commander at Portsmouth, Was Naval Aide to King George V

LONDON, June 25 (C).—Admiral Sir William Fisher, sixty-two, commander of Portsmouth Naval Base and former commander of the Mediterranean Fleet, died today.

Fisher entered the Royal Navy as a cadet in H.M.S. Britannia as a lad of thirteen and in the Battle of Jutland was in command of H.M.S. St. Vincent. In 1917 he went to the Admiralty as director of the anti-submarine division. He became a rear-admiral in 1922, vice-admiral in 1928 and admiral in 1932, in which year he became commander-in-chief of the Mediterranean Fleet, a position he held through the crisis growing out of the Italo-Ethiopian war. He was naval A.D.C. to King George V, 1921-22.

Whites are varied this Summer, with chalk, porcelain, oyster and gardenia variations, some a little more yellow than the everyday and garden variety of white.

When the time is Pacific standard for the 12th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figure in the height column distinguishes high water from low water. Where blacked out in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during successive tidal periods without turning. The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

When the depth of water or the sun of the Beaufort drydock, add 1.8 feet to the height of high water as above given.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of June 26, 1887)

Church Notices—The Coronation anthem will be repeated tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the service at Christ Church. A song and Gospel service will be held at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night in the Y.M.C.A. Church. Rev. Mr. Hill, pastor of the Baptist Church, Eugene City, Oregon, will preach in the City Baptist Church at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Reformed Episcopal Church services will be held tomorrow and evening at the usual hours of public worship. Dr. R. H. Reid will preach in the morning and Rev. Prof. Collier, Halifax, N.S., will preach in the afternoon. The service at the Victoria Avenue Presbyterian Church will be conducted at 11 a.m. by Rev. Dr. Archibald. Rev. J. E. Starr will occupy the pulpit of the North Methodist Church tomorrow morning, and in the evening will officiate in the Pandora Avenue Church. Rev. Charles Laidner will conduct the services in the latter church at 11 a.m.

Settling Colonists—William Halpern returned from Alberta yesterday morning, where he settled three parties. He reports everything looking well in that growing settlement, and is now ready to meet those destined to secure his services as government guide.

Basket Picnic—The farmers of North and South Saanich will hold their annual basket picnic at Sandhill Creek on July 1. The Queen City Orchestra will be in attendance and all friends and visitors are invited to be present. A public time is to be set for all.

Schools

He was playing softball, and holding down third base with some assurance, conversing the while with his fellows across the school-ground. "Oney two more days," said he, "and we'll be out of this prison what I mean, and be recommended." To some, school is still a prison, though so very much less than it was a decade ago. It is a more pleasant place to spend the best of one's waking hours, more healthful, with teachers, I have been told, who treat you as individual and not as another unit amongst forty-odd, to be kept in or thrashed into mental alertness. . . . The third baseman of today will find more confining prisons in his forward march. All work is a chore and a tie, unless you love it, and you cannot love all the work you do, unless you are particularly fortunate. . . . There should be more praise, I think, for our educators who are endeavoring to make our schools less of a "prison" and the pupils' life thereafter brighter and more pleasant. The modern youngster is far luckier than his parents, still more fortunate than his grandparents. But, taking the present very much for granted, it is doubtful if he will ever realize it.—B.G.

Camera Why?

Oh, what a shot for the candid camera fan—but the lamentable part of the whole thing is that a young fellow had a camera focused on the embarrassed individual and refrained from clicking the shutter. It all happened this way—a young gallant was strolling through Butchart's Gardens when his lady fair when they spotted a rock in one of the small ponds, a foot or two off shore. Agreeing as one what a beautiful throne it would make for a photographic study of the damsel, they immediately proceeded with the necessary arrangements. While he unsnapped his camera she stepped nimbly upon the rock and perched there very demurely. "Watch the birds!" had barely fallen from his lips when the large boulder slowly but very definitely proceeded to turn upon its axis and the young lady assumed a new sitting posture, this time in three feet of water. It was a very gentlemanly act not to shoot, but why didn't he snap the picture?—W.I.F.

Glancing Over Sport

One funny angle about the Louis-Braddock fight in Chicago was that there were more ring-side seats sold at $27.50 per throw than in the 86 and 88 sections. I guess Promoter Mike Jacobs would like to figure that one out. There's only one thing to be said for the fact that the cheaper seats were so far from the ring that the fans would have to get binoculars to see the boys in action, and they cost plenty these days. . . . Jorge Brescia, Argentine heavyweight, who was at the ringside, told an A.P. sports writer that he would rather be beaten by one of Bob Feller's fast ones than collide with Joe Louis' fists. Brescia was knocked out by the Bomber some time last year. . . . If George Leggett plays the same kind of a brilliant game today for the Westminster Royals as he did for Victoria against Charlton Athletic, the Victoria City right wing combination is going to be in for a tough time. . . . "I won $3 on the right," Margaret told me in front of the office on Thursday. "You must have followed my section in the Observation Car," I replied. "Not on your life, I won it in a sweepstake at the store." Thanks for the pat on the back, anyhow, Margaret. . . . It won't be long now before the bang-bangs are romping over the turf on British Columbia tracks. The barrier goes up in Vancouver at Lansdowne on July 1. A few days later they swing into action at Longacres, just outside of Seattle. —J.D.

Hit Below Belt

Frank, a radio mechanic, loves to argue about anything and everything. One night not long ago, Service Station Joe nearly got the best of an argument with Frank, who finally remarked: "Anyway, tired though I am, I can keep up with anybody." Joe grinned: "How about the landlady?" The argument ended. . . . Commander Len, of Qualicum Beach, wrote us that he received two letters at Ben Bow Inn, one addressed to "Bamboo Inn" and the other to "Bon Ton Inn." Two Oak Bay youths became public service-minded the night of the big box fight. They installed a radio set underneath a tree, with several additional loudspeakers, and soon provided entertainment for a small crowd of listeners. Our tobaccoist friend told us a tale that reminded us of starving in the midst of plenty. It appears a local workman was unloading a railway car full of matches, and when time off for a smoke arrived he found himself without a light. He had to walk four blocks before finding a person who could oblige him. . . . Bill, the Broad Street barber, defines an optimist as a man who believes the speedometer on an automobile after it has had several owners.—G.B.

Barber—Is the razor all right, sir?

Client—Well, if you had not mentioned it I should not have thought you were treating my face with a razor.

Barber (flattered)—Oh, thank you, sir.

Client—"I should have thought it was a file."

ORIENTAL-RAISED POTATOES

Sir,—In the Victoria Daily Times, issue of June 18 Mr. George Rowland prints some remarks on cheap potatoes raised by our Chinese growers. May I ask him to turn back on his file of Maclean's Magazine for a month or two. There he will find a well-written article by Charles Lugin Shaw headed "The Oriental Wants to Vote." The statements made in that thumb-nail sketch of the Oriental problem have not yet been controverted; their truth may be denied, but cannot be disproved; for they are a summary of simple facts which may be epitomized as thus: The great bulk of the Chinese now settled in British Columbia were brought to Canada by the C.P.R. construction contractors to put that railway through the mountain ranges, some fifty odd years ago, together with their Canadian-born children and grandchildren. They were obtained from their native land on special request of those railway construction heads through Sir Donald Smith (Lord Strathcona) to Sir John Macdonald, Canada's Prime Minister. Their bringing in and employment in this country was authorized by the parliament of Canada as well as the Chinese Government. They were imported because of the consensus of expert opinion the work could not be completed in contract time by such poor white labor as was available, and which had fallen down on the job. Finally Mr. Shaw stated that these gangs of Chinese workmen completed the undertaking to the contractors' satisfaction, which allowed the line to be put into operation by the C.P.R. by the time agreed on with British Columbia in her terms of Federation with Canada, thus saving British Columbia from absorption into the United States of America—the surely impending alternative. Anyone who saw "Silent Barriers" on the silver screen knows that both Redskins and yellowskins (with pig-tails) had much to do with the dangerous work of survey and of blasting involved in putting a roadbed through those ranges, especially at Rogers' Pass.

Esquimalt Marksmen Clean Up Four Team Matches On the Mainland

BLAIRE RIFLE RANGE, NORTH VANCOUVER, June 25. —Esquimalt Garrison Rifle Association marksmen "pinned" bull's-eyes with near monotonous regularity today to capture four match trophies, major shoots, in today's firing of the British Columbia Rifle Association's fifty-ninth annual meet.

A Vancouver sharpshooter took top honors in the Rayment match, individual prize hunt. The Esquimalt team, a strong favorite, took the Sir Arthur Currie match and three aggregate matches, the Laurie Bugle, the Branson-Brown and the Infantry Association Cup.

In the Currie match they made a total of 567 points, fifteen points over the Canadian Scottish team of Victoria, who placed second. These scores compared favorably with those made in the McKinnon matches at Bixley, experts said.

WINS LAURIE BUGLE
 In the aggregate matches, the Island team won the highly-prized Laurie Bugle with 2,632 points, the Branson-Brown, a tyre match, with 1,351 points, and the Infantry Association Cup with 1,129 points.

The Laurie Bugle, first presented in 1881, is awarded to the team whose individual member scores in the Westminster, the British Consols No. 1, the Duff Stuart, the Vancouver Corporation, the Lieutenant-Governor's (first stage), the British Consols No. 2 and the Victoria Corporation matches make the highest aggregate.

The Branson-Brown match is the tyre equivalent of the Laurie Bugle match. The Infantry Association Cup is awarded to the team whose individuals have the highest aggregate score in the British Consols No. 1 and No. 2 matches combined.

Captain J. E. Biddecombe, Vancouver, B.C.R., was the winner of the difficult Rayment match with a score of 38 out of a possible 50. His closest competitors were L. Cpl. L. S. Ross, Esquimalt, E.G.R.A., who shot a 35, and Constable F. C. S. Sullivan, Vancouver, R.C.M.P., who had a 34.

TITLE MEET AT VICTORIA LAWN
 More Than Twenty Matches Carded for Opening Day in Championship Tourney

With the courts in excellent condition, play in the annual title meet will get under way this afternoon at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club courts, Fort Street. A fine entry has been received and before the season's titleholders are crowned some keen matches will be seen at the veteran club.

Starting this afternoon, the tournament will last for two weeks, with the finals carded for Saturday, July 10. Defending champions will be on hand in an effort to retain their laurels in the various divisions, with the exception of the women's and men's singles at present held by Mrs. Hocking and Rodd "Bud" Hocking.

The complete slate of titleholders are as follows: Women's singles, Mrs. R. V. Hocking; men's singles, R. V. Hocking; men's doubles, Hocking and Gordon; women's doubles, Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Lay; mixed doubles, Mrs. J. C. I. Edwards and Commander J. C. I. Edwards.

EXPEDITION GOES NORTH

Famous Atlantic Fishing Craft Rebuilt for McMillan Arctic Cruise

GLoucester, Mass., June 25. —Commander Donald B. Macmillan's sixteenth Arctic expedition sailed today for the Northland. The famous Gloucester fishing schooner, Gertrude L. Thibaud, slipped out of this fishing port on the first leg of a 6,000-mile voyage for scientific and geographical exploration work in North Labrador and Baffin Bay.

Completely rebuilt inside, the Queen of the United States fishing fleet was a veritable scientific school afloat laden to the scuppers with tons of supplies.

Critics Praise Blind Pianist From Canada
 Further acclaim has been given by European audiences to the brilliant young blind Canadian pianist, Mary Munn, of Montreal.

According to information received from London during the past few days, Miss Munn has been receiving the highest praise from musical critics of nearly all the European capitals. The most recent of her audiences, in London, heard her in a splendidly diversified programme that embraced compositions by the old masters such as Beethoven, Brahms, Handel and Bach, and such moderns as Bartok, Vaughan Williams and Tobias Matthay.

The press has been most enthusiastic in its appreciation not only in England, but in Vienna, Budapest, Paris and Berlin. Born in Montreal, Miss Munn, who is a niece of H. A. Munn, of Victoria, has been blind from birth. But she is so greatly gifted musically that this does not seem to have proved a hindrance to her career.

In any event, she has surmounted the handicap, as her acceptance proves. She was educated at Weston School, began her musical studies with Catherine H. Smith, and later (1926) went to McGill University, about the same time winning the final grade gold medal of the Associated Board of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music, London.

SHOW BOAT LISTS TEN SERVICES
 With one date still to be arranged, the following is the list of speakers and churches that are responsible for the Sunday evening services at the Show Boat. The services last for an hour, beginning at 9 p.m. The collection, less a few expenses, go to city charities.

The list is as follows:
 June 27, Adjutant L. Ede, Salvation Army; July 4, Rev. W. R. Brown, James Bay United Church; July 11, Dean C. S. Quinton, Christ Church Cathedral; July 18, Rev. G. A. Reynolds, First Baptist Church; August 1, Rev. T. H. McAllister, Gorge Presbyterian Church; August 8, Rev. Edwin Bracher, Grace Lutheran Church; August 15, Rev. G. R. V. Bolster, St. John's Anglican Church; August 22, Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, Metropolitan United Church; August 29, Salvation Army.

"ULTIMATE AIMS" IS MORNING TOPIC
 "Ultimate Aims" will be the topic discussed at the morning service of the Victoria City Temple tomorrow, when G. A. A. Hebben will be the speaker. Rev. W. H. Gibson will preach at the evening service.

The Temple choir will sing "God Is a Spirit" (Smart) at the morning service and "Souls of the Righteous" (Noble) in the evening.

BRITISH-ISRAEL HAS FIVE NEW BRANCHES
 Five new branches of the British-Israel movement in British Columbia have been organized during the past year, bringing the total to fifty-five. This was announced at the recent annual meeting of the B.C. branches, British-Israel World Federation, held in Vancouver. George S. Cruz was re-elected president, and E. E. Richards, of this city, was placed on the executive committee.

Life on Planets To Be Described
 The Spiritual Mission of Alexis, 1042 Balmoral Road, will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, when the control "Alexis" will give an address. The subject chosen is "Life on the Planets." Following this, a few messages will be given.

City and District

Will Meet Tonight—The Victoria Short Wave Club will hold its regular meeting tonight at 2024 Carnarvon Street. The picnic scheduled for tomorrow has been postponed.

Plans Visit—Mayor Joseph Carson, of Portland, and his bride are expected here next month to pay an official visit to the city's anniversary celebrations, according to word received by Mayor Andrew McGavin.

Fortin Plan—Word is expected at the City Hall today or on Monday from Jules E. Fortin, originator of the scheme designed to relieve the city's debt burden. Mr. Fortin is due at Toronto this morning from the Prairie Provinces.

In Ward Three—Victoria's provincial election count continued yesterday, with tally clerks reaching box five, Ward Three, in the late afternoon. Figures for the official count on all eighteen Victoria candidates will not likely be ready for ten days or more.

Gives Warning—In imposing a fine of $250 upon a youth who expedited his transportation on a bicycle by holding onto an automobile, Magistrate H. C. Hall, in city police court yesterday, called attention to the danger of such practice and warned against repetition of the offence.

Compensated for Loss—Compensation in the sum of three dollars was allowed A. Spouse for the loss of four chickens killed by dogs, by the Saanich Council, Thursday evening. For the loss of nine ducks, P. H. Lewis was allowed $2.50. The awards were made under the provisions of the Sheep Protection Act.

Closing British Columbia Books—By Cabinet order, the province extended time for closing provincial books on the fiscal year 1936-37 yesterday until June 30. The province is ending the year with a handsome surplus on current expenditure, due to accretion of ordinary revenues.

Pedestrian Count—George A. Okell, city assessor and collector, today will supervise the annual June pedestrian count from 11 o'clock until noon and 4 to 5 o'clock on Port, Broad, View, Government, Yates and Douglas Streets. Figures will be compiled on the amount of foot traffic passing various points.

New Petition—H. S. Pringle, city solicitor, has drafted a new petition to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council seeking permission to re-align a portion of Dallas Road from Moss to Bushy Street. Road work is being done by the city to eliminate a blind corner opposite the road leading to Clover Point.

Death Was Accidental—A coroner's jury sitting inquest on the body of Fred Scarff, thirty-five, killed by falling logs at Rock Bay logging operations on Tuesday, returned a verdict of death by misadventure according to reports to the Island Division of the British Columbia Police yesterday. A brother, resident in Alberta, was notified by the police.

Appointments Made—Dr. R. A. McLeod, of Edmonds, was added to the board of the Royal Columbian Hospital yesterday by provincial order. A Juvenile Court was created at Smithers, with Herbert B. Campbell, Government agent, as its judge. Leslie Adams was named deputy mining recorder for Clinton mining division, with sub-recording office at Taseko.

New Schedule—In a letter to the City Council yesterday, Harold Husband, general manager of Vancouver Coach Lines, Ltd., stated a new schedule between the city and Thetis Lake would be in operation from July 1 to September 6. Buses will leave for the lake between 11:05 o'clock in the morning and 8:05 o'clock at night for the convenience of bathers and picnickers.

St. Saviour's Picnic—St. Saviour's Sunday school and congregational picnic will be held at Hamsterley Lakeside, Elk Lake, Saturday, July 3. Coaches will leave the church at 1:30. Sgt. A. H. Blahop will be in charge of the sports and games. Hot water, milk and tea will be provided for visitors free. Coaches are being provided by the C. & C. Coach Lines for the transportation of children and friends.

Will Be Taken Care Of—Jardine Singh, charged in the City Police Court with vagrancy, was before the magistrate on remand yesterday. The information given the court was that the accused was subject to attacks that might be regarded as a case of sleeping sickness. His cousin yesterday agreed to look after his fellow countryman until he could go back to India. The accused has considerable money, it was stated.

Garden Competition—A competition for unemployed amateur gardeners is to be sponsored this year by Saanich Municipality, and will be open to all relief recipients of six months' standing. Only kitchen gardens are eligible, and entries must be received at the municipal hall or by relief officials, on or before July 15. Prizes of $10, $7.50 and $5 will be offered, and judges are to be appointed by Councillors E. C. Warren and John Watson.

To Clear Corners—Chief Thomas Healey yesterday supplied Mayor McGavin with a list of street corners that need clearing of high grass and bushes. He pointed out the growth at many points seriously obstructed the vision of pedestrians and motorists, particularly in some parts of Fairfield and James Bay districts. The public works executive will deal with the matter this morning. Alderman Edward Williams announced.

DANCE AT SOOKE
 Under the auspices of the Sooke Community Association and the Sooke and North Sooke Institute, an enjoyable dance was held in the new hall on Wednesday evening. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Sooke Athletic Association. A four-piece orchestra was in attendance and supper was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Finland and visitors from surrounding districts. Mr. C. A. Heigerson made an announcement regarding the opening of the Shirley Community Hall on July 9. Owing to anniversary festivities in Victoria from August 2 to August 7, the date of "All Sooke Day" has been changed to Wednesday, August 11, at Sooke River flats.

Work Costs—Of a total appropriation of $45,000 for public works composed of $6,000 for each of the seven wards, and $1,000 for general purposes, the sum of $19,048 had been spent to May 29, according to a report submitted to the Saanich Council, Thursday evening. Expenditures in individual wards follow: Ward One, $2,997; Ward Two, $3,195.63; Ward Three, $2,408.29; Ward Four, $2,614.06; Ward Five, $1,385.12; Ward Six, $2,579.43; Ward Seven, $2,633.70.

Repair Signs—The road-sign crew of the Victoria Automobile Club has recently completed its annual overhaul of direction posts along the Island Highway and in the Sooke and Saanich districts. From Victoria to Forbes Landing each road junction is now marked with a newly-painted white post and black-lettered arms. On behalf of the Forestry Department, the club has affixed to each post an arm, on which, lettered in red, is the slogan, "Prevent Forest Fires."

Lady Floud Speaks To Club Women on The Art of Living

Women's Canadian Club Luncheon Held at Empress Hotel—Speaker Recommends Study of Painting as Interesting and Helpful Pastime

Great lessons for life were to be found in the study of art, said Lady Floud, wife of Sir Francis Floud, British High Commissioner to Canada, during the course of an eloquent and exceptionally delightful address given at a Women's Canadian Club luncheon in the Duke of Kent dining-room of the Empress Hotel yesterday.

Taking as her subject "Art and the Art of Living," Lady Floud pointed out some of the lessons which might be learned from the study of painting. "Education in art," she said, "teaches us humility, tremendous patience, decision and self-control, all of which are lessons which should be applied throughout life. Herself an artist, Lady Floud told of her early experiences in the field of painting and of her studies at the Slade School, London. She paid a great tribute to Professor Tonks, of the Slade, a man of vision, whom, she felt, it had been a great privilege to know.

Life for the artist was often a great struggle, she said, with very little hope of making a living since the days had gone by when an artist had a wealthy patron to support him. Nevertheless, the artist was able to "see things which the layman never sees."

IDEAL IN COMMON

"Deep down in our hearts," declared Lady Floud, "we all have one thing in common—to make the most of our lives." Many people did not realize what it was that they were wanting; they saw life passing them by, realized that they were missing something, and realizing this, they "rush about the world as a means of escape from themselves." The person who had everything that he wanted, was to be pitied, and the lonely wealthy person must be a very sad person, was Lady Floud's opinion.

The speaker emphasized the importance of early training for the child as a period in which to choose and to decide that which is worth striving for in life. As a very young age, she said, food was the greatest pleasure in life, illustrating her point with amusing anecdotes.

"Life can be most thrilling and stimulating," she continued, "or it can be a very bitter pill." Many people started off determined to acquire a comfortable and adequate income, but seem unable to stop, until they became obsessed with the money-making ideal.

Lady Floud spoke of people's tendency to undervalue themselves and their talents, and told of the art classes which had been conducted by Mr. Frederick Varley in Vancouver, in which men who had never had any art training whatever, had found tremendous interest, and a new world of relaxation and thought had consequently opened before them. Many people who had never tried to paint would find in it as a hobby a fascinating outlet, Lady Floud said. Women sometimes became too much engrossed with their homes, their families and their daily routine, often to the point of boredom. For such as these, the speaker strongly recommended painting as a hobby.

STANDARDIZED CHILDREN

So many things in life tended to "destroy" the imagination of childhood. Parents prefer their children to be standardized—it is less trouble—and they will probably grow up to be obedient office boys, but is it good for the world? The speaker asked. Lady Floud told of the facilities provided for children in Toronto, where they gather each Saturday morning and are free to amuse themselves with painting, modeling, etc. It was a form of self-expression which was proving very popular, and an experience which, in after years, would leave a definite mark upon the individuals.

VISITS MISS CARR

Lady Floud spoke of her visit yesterday morning to Miss Emily Carr, Victoria artist, who, Lady Floud said, "has produced some of the most glorious and magnificent pictures of the forest ever produced." At the conclusion of her interesting address, given with an informality which delighted her listeners, Lady Floud was presented with a book, "Pioneer Women of British Columbia," and a corsage bouquet by Mrs. James Adam, first vice-president of the club, who was in the chair in the absence of the president, Mrs. Harold Campbell.

About 100 members attended the luncheon. The tables were attractively decorated with bowls of Iceland poppies, and at the head table

Will Be Wed Today in South

Mary Pickford, Toronto-born movie star, and Charles "Buddy" Rogers will be married today in the garden of the home of Louis D. Leighton, a film producer in Hollywood. After the ceremony, a large reception will be held at "Pickfair," magnificent hill-top home where Miss Pickford reigned over Hollywood society when she was Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks. The bride and groom will leave later for a Honolulu honeymoon.

Clubs Societies

Metropolitan W.M.S.
A very successful midsummer day tea was held on Thursday afternoon at the Oriental Home, 732 Cormorant Street, under the auspices of the Metropolitan Church W.M.S. The guests were welcomed by the superintendent of the home, Miss M. Laurie, and by the vice-president of the society, Mrs. W. L. Smith. A profusion of Summer flowers was arranged artistically throughout the reception rooms, and a splendid musical programme was given, as follows: Vocal solos, Mrs. E. Ridgway, "Kerry Dancing" and "Fairy Lights of London"; Mrs. Archie Wills, "I Love You" and "Two Children"; Mrs. Noel, "An Old-Fashioned House" and "Just A-Wearying for You"; the accompanists Mrs. W. E. Harper, and the accompanists Mrs. F. King and Mrs. Rae Baker, Mrs. E. Arthur and Miss E. Harrie received the silver offering. During the afternoon the visitors were given an opportunity of inspecting the home, kindly conducted by members of the staff. The tea table was particularly attractive, a lace cloth being used and, for centrepiece, an exquisite cut glass bowl of roses, flanked by ivory tapers in transparent holders. Those pouring tea were Mrs. E. P. Church, Miss F. Braik, Mrs. A. J. Daniels and Mrs. W. H. Whiteley. Assisting at the tables were Mrs. J. T. Taylor, Mrs. E. J. Dicker, Mrs. A. H. Adams and Mrs. W. J. Cullum.

Duncan W.A.

The W.A. to St. John's Church, Duncan, held a very successful Summer fete Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. E. Corfield. Owing to inclement weather, the various stalls and games were arranged indoors. Mrs. G. A. Jobling, president of the W.A., and Mrs. F. G. Christmas, honorary president, received the guests. Tea was in charge of Mesdames G. Cook, J. E. Sanders, J. A. McKinnell and A. W. Compilin, and waitresses were Mrs. F. G. Aldersey, Mrs. W. R. Smythe, Mrs. R. J. Anderson and Mrs. P. McPherson. Home cooking was sold by Mrs. W. S. Gwyn, Mrs. L. Langlois and Mrs. J. A. McDonald. The novelty stall was in charge of Mrs. S. R. Kirkham and Mrs. D. Morris. Mrs. Wallace Whidden sold sweets and Mrs. J. Gilman and Miss Maude Wilson sold ice cream. Mrs. H. R. Garrard convoked the bridge tables and Mrs. W. H. Purver was in charge of the bean competition, which was won by Mrs. R. C. McGregor. The mystery box, in charge of Mrs. G. V. Jarvis, was won by Mrs. C. Warwick. At the close of the fete, Rev. J. S. Orton thanked Mrs. Corfield, on behalf of the Auxiliary, for so generously placing her home at their disposal for the day.

Pro Patria W.A.

The ways and means committee of Pro Patria W.A., Mrs. F. Ripley and Mrs. W. Campbell, have completed arrangements for a silver tea and card party to be held at the home of Mrs. J. Quinn, 1331 Esquimalt Road, on July 5, in the afternoon and evening, under the auspices of Pro Patria W.A. There will be a fancywork stall and games, tea and card reading and crystal gazing. The card party will start in the evening at 8 o'clock and refreshments will be served.

Navy League W.A.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Navy League W.A. held yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Walter Adams, the vice-president, in the chair in the absence of the president, Mrs. Sidney Wood, who is ill. This was the last meeting until September. Arrangements were made for serving tea at the field day to be held by the Sea Cadets in July.

TO OPEN GARDEN FETE

Mrs. G. H. Harman has consented to open St. Saviour's annual garden fete to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. MacTavish, 733 Lamson Street, on Wednesday, July 7, at 3 o'clock.

Wedding Is Celebrated

Rev. T. G. Griffiths officiated at the wedding of his second daughter, Esther Apsey Bird, and Mr. Cluny Dunbar McPherson, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam McPherson, Braefoot Estate, which took place at St. Aidan's Manse last evening at 7:30 o'clock in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Masses of flowers, in shades of pink and white, adorned the house, and during the service the bride and groom stood beneath an arch of spiraea studded with clusters of pink geraniums.

The bride looked most attractive in a redingote frock of navy blue and white net over white satin, with a large white flower at the V-neck, and a long circular veil, confined to her head with a wreath of orange blossoms. She held a shower bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Miss Megan Griffiths, Vancouver, was her sister's maid of honor, in a pretty frock of primrose yellow sheer with a shirred bolero jacket, and Miss Marjorie Griffiths was the bridesmaid, in a frock of rose-beige lace with a cape collar. They both wore floral bandeaus in their hair, and held sheaves of gladioli, sweet peas and stocks, in pastel shades. Mr. Keith Sedgman was best man.

AT THE RECEPTION

Mrs. Griffiths was dressed in navy blue satin, and the bridegroom's mother in a gown of cerise chiffon, and they both wore shoulder bouquets of Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

Supper was served after the service from a table centred with the wedding cake, which was surmounted with a tiny vase of pink roses and asparagus fern, and stood beneath pink and white streamers, between vases of pink and white carnations, and tall white tapers in silver candelabra.

After a honeymoon on the Island, for which the bride left in a navy blue and white suit with matching accessories, Mr. and Mrs. McPherson will make their home at Braefoot Estate. Mr. Frank Goughly, Vancouver, was a guest at the wedding.

PARTY AT SOOKE

In honor of Mrs. Richard Seymour (nee Sally Reid), a miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Richardson, Sooke, on Tuesday afternoon. The hostesses were Mrs. Charles Richardson, Mrs. Vernon Richardson, Mrs. W. Welsh, Mrs. S. Lundie, Mrs. H. P. McBride and Mrs. J. Collins. A wishing well, artistically decorated, held a large number of gifts which were handed to Mrs. Seymour by little Diane Banies. During the afternoon Mrs. P. Wadams sang "Until" and "I Love the Moon." She was accompanied by Miss Helen Welsh at the piano. The hostesses served tea. Among those present were: Mrs. H. Sheppard, Mrs. Pen-dray, Victoria; Mrs. G. Dewar, Mrs. A. E. Percival, Mrs. G. Cook, Mrs. O. Throp, Mrs. J. G. Noury and Carol Auchincloss, Mrs. P. Wadams.

Mrs. N. L. Gettle, Mrs. Baines, Mrs. F. Thornber, Mrs. Reuben Acreman, Mrs. A. Constant, Mrs. H. Black, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. J. Forrest and Harold, Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. A. L. Wilson, Mrs. G. McIntosh, Jr.; Misses E. Phillips, Agnes Milne, Helen Welsh, Hilda Richardson, Doris Thompson, and others.

Saanich Pioneer Honored by His Fellow Members

Memories and reminiscences of over forty years' association with the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society belong to Mr. H. E. Tanner, who after sixteen years has relinquished the post of president.

He was paid a surprise visit at his home at Keating this week by a representative group from the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society, and presented on behalf of the directors and members with a handsome easy chair.

Mr. George T. Michell, president of the society, in making the presentation, referred to Mr. Tanner's long association with the society, and of his never-failing courtesy and tact, which had undoubtedly helped in no small measure during the many years in which he held the various offices, to build up and weld together the different sections and interests of the society. Mr. Tanner, in reply, showed his keen appreciation.

After the presentation, past experiences and anecdotes in connection with early days of the society were recalled. Supper was served by Mrs. Tanner. The representatives were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Michell, Mr. J. M. Malcolm, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Michell, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nimmo and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart G. Stoddart. Also present were Messrs. Frank and Bill Tanner.

Weddings

BROWN-MUTEN

A quiet wedding was solemnized on June 19 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Muten, Vancouver, Rev. V. H. Sansum officiating, when Mr. and Mrs. Muten's only daughter, Elsie Beatrice Rose, became the bride of Mr. Robert Brown, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brown, Victoria. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by Mrs. Dora Allan, and the best man was Mr. Frank Muten, brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have taken up residence in Victoria.

WISHART-BURNETT

Rev. T. H. McAllister officiated at the wedding of Jeanie Hutchison, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Burnett, 3997 Harriet Road, and Mr. Robert Hugh Wishart, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wishart, Colwood, which took place at the home of the bride's parents at 8 o'clock last evening. During the service, the bride and groom stood beneath a white arch and bell. Mr. Burnett gave his daughter away, and she wore a pretty frock of forget-me-not blue net with touches of pink and tied with a pink sash, and a wreath of wild syringa in her hair, and held an arm bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Maude Jones, wore a "flowered" frock of coronation rose crepe, and held a bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. Mr. Charles Burnett, brother of the bride, was best man.

Only relatives were present at the ceremony and reception which followed. A profusion of Summer flowers was arranged in the house, and the brides' cake centred the supper table, which was arranged with vases of small rosebuds and columbine, and tall white candles in silver holders.

After a honeymoon on the Island, for which the bride left in a smart three-piece suit in a blue-grey mixture, worn with a delphinium blue felt hat trimmed with gros-grain ribbon, Mr. and Mrs. Wishart will make their home at Langford.

Miss M. Yard Is Guest of Honor

In honor of Miss Mabel Yard, a popular bride-to-be, a cup and saucer shower was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. H. Clarke, 3112 Quadra Street, who was hostess along with Mrs. D. Davey and Mrs. A. Norris.

The guest of honor was presented with a corsage bouquet upon her arrival. The gifts were concealed in a large pink and green cup and saucer, over which was a pink watering can. This was the work of Mrs. Davey. Miss Yard was assisted in opening the gifts by little Miss Eileen Clarke and Miss Bernice Davey. Bowls of pink gladioli and delphinium were arranged in the reception room.

The supper table was covered with a white cloth and decorated

Hawaiian Tunes Played At Beaux-Arts' Dance

"A Hawaiian Luau" was the theme chosen by the Beaux-Arts for its annual flannel dance held last night in the palm room of the Crystal Garden. About 250 persons attended and enjoyed the many spectacular stunts and floor numbers presented by the artists. Dancing continued until 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Colorful leis, made by members of the society with crepe paper, were among the favors distributed to the guests by girls dressed in Hawaiian costume. Besides the six-piece orchestra, Southern music was played on the guitar by a special orchestra guest. Members of the orchestra wore white flannels, sports shirts and orange bands about their waists and leis round their necks. Spotlight dancing was a feature of the programme, and a sit-down supper was served in the lower ballroom.

Miss Myra Batchelor, wearing a green Hawaiian dress, took the solo part in the Hawaiian dance presented by the pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Wilson's Russian Ballet School. The chorus included Misses Patricia Boyd, Sheila McArthur, Erminie Webber, Rosemary Farrow, Lillian Foster and Josephine Wilson, who wore natural-colored grass skirts, with flowers in their hair and leis round their necks. In this number, Hawaiian music was played by a special orchestra, and then Miss Batchelor, surrounded by the chorus seated on the floor, explained the meaning of the movements of the dance and did the solo dance, followed by a jazz interpretation by the chorus. After the chorus had left the floor, the Hawaiian orchestra played "Song of the Island."

The Beaux-Arts chorus was enthusiastically received, and those taking part were Misses Patricia Pennock, Helen Watson, Tita Hall, Peggy Gelling, Messrs. John Gray, Tom Coventry, Dick George and Tommy Stevenson. The girls wore sheer white ballroom frocks trimmed with red, and wore leis round their necks, the boys being dressed in white flannels and full white satin blouses and red sashes and leis. Miss Patricia Pennock directed the chorus numbers.

SOLO DANCE

A spirited Russian dance was given by Miss Betty Pawcett, who has recently returned from Hollywood. In this number she wore a short white satin flared dress, a red bolero and white headpiece trimmed with red beads, and white kid boots. Miss Betty Petch, who is in Vancouver with one of the radio stations, dedicated a vocal number to the Beaux-Arts, which was broadcast in the Crystal Ballroom at 10:45 o'clock.

A demonstration of diving and several comic stunts were presented by Mr. Archie McKinnon and a team from the Y.M.C.A. Miss Jean Drummond, Mr. Edward Rau and Mr. Ivor Fuller were applauded for their spectacular diving, which was interspersed with a few comedy numbers, and Mr. McKinnon, as a tramp, and Mr. Chris McRae, as a policeman, were most popular in several clowning acts.

Social and Personal

Receives Handsome Gift

Miss Doris Fox, whose marriage to Mr. Horace N. Walls will take place next month, was the guest of honor when the Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club held "open house night" on Thursday at the clubrooms, Union Building. The hostesses were Miss E. M. Macrae, Mrs. Grant and Miss J. M. Shaw. A color scheme of green and white, together with masses of gay Summer flowers in pastel shades, was used in decorating the rooms. The president, Miss Minnie Lawson, conveyed the good wishes of the members to the bride-to-be, and on their behalf presented her with a hand-wrought pewter pitcher of old Holland design by Galstoff. Miss Fox, who has been a valued member of the club for several years and is now its second vice-president, was taken completely by surprise, but replied suitably to the president's address. A competition, appropriate to the occasion, was enjoyed, the winners being Mrs. H. F. Hodges, first, and Mrs. B. Rose, second. Refreshments were served from a table having as its centerpiece a mixed bouquet of pastel-colored flowers in a jade green bowl. Nearly forty members were present.

Future Bride Wins Prize

Mrs. R. K. Simpson and Miss Margaret O'Neill were hostesses last evening at a kitchen shower given at Mrs. Simpson's home on Pendergast Street, in honor of Miss Amelia Brydon, whose marriage to Mr. Walter Moberly will take place next week. The reception rooms were fragrant with masses of syringia blossoms, blue campanulae and pink roses. Games were played, the prowess of the bride-to-be making her the sole winner, and the prizes, as arranged, were her shower gifts. A buffet supper was served by the hostesses, the table having an artistic arrangement of pink roses and blue campanulae in a silver rose bowl as its centerpiece. Similar blooms in bud vases and pink tapers in silver holders completed this dainty pink and blue motif. The guests were Mrs. R. Brydon, Mrs. R. B. Prendergast, Mrs. G. Love, Mrs. Ursula Ley, Mrs. N. O'Neill, Mrs. W. Pearmain, Mrs. E. Exton, Mrs. K. Hemsworth, Mrs. T. Youell and Misses Kathleen Barker, Nan Brewster, Jean Dunnett, Sydney O'Neill, Patsy Burnett, Lauretta McColl, Charlotte Crawford, Dorothy Stanhope, Sheila O'Connell, Isabelle Pickson, Dorothy Prendergast, Dorothy Richdale and Muriel Prendergast.

Surprise Shower

Miss Mary Johnston, a July bride-elect, was the very much surprised guest of honor at a shower at her home, 1225 Juno Street, on Thursday evening, when her fellow associates presented her with an attractive lamp and a basketful of kitchen utensils, each daintily wrapped in pale green cellophane. The bride-to-be was also presented with a beautiful corsage bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. A buffet supper was served. The self-invited guests included Mrs. Fidler, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. G. Edgewood, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Milliken and Misses N. Dean, H. Butterfield, B. Young, K. Preston, T. Walker, G. Cochran, N. Prudom, A. Buckle, G. Schroeder, A. Parkinson, I. Restell, V. Ovenden, L. Robinson, E. De La Haye, K. Miles, A. Borde, A. Fidler, E. Fleming, A. McKay, I. McAdams, D. Borrowman, N. Davies, P. Williams and C. Johnston.

Tea for Bride-to-Be

In honor of Miss Alexia Brown, who is to be married shortly, Mrs. Albert Sullivan entertained yesterday at the tea hour at her home,

1127 Richardson Street. During the afternoon a presentation of a piece of Spode china and a corsage bouquet from the guests was made to Miss Brown. Miss Evelyn Harper played several pianoforte selections. The tea table, covered with an Italian lace cloth centred with a crystal bowl of pink roses and flanked by tall ivory tapers in cut crystal holders, was presided over by Mrs. H. T. J. Coleman. Deep Cove, and Mrs. V. L. Denton. Mrs. Sullivan was assisted by her daughters, the Misses Marnie and Isabel Sullivan. The guests were Mrs. J. A. Armstrong, Mrs. W. E. George, Mrs. Vernon L. Denton, Mrs. W. E. Harper, Mrs. F. C. Green, Mrs. E. S. Farr, Mrs. S. J. Willis, Mrs. H. T. J. Coleman (Deep Cove), Mrs. Hartley (Deep Cove), Mrs. Howard Taylor, Mrs. Hamilton Smith, Mrs. Ball (Halifax), Mrs. E. C. Manning, Mrs. John Gough, Miss Evelyn Harper, Margaret Green, Patricia Hamilton Smith, Nora Drury, Muriel Aylard, Aileen Aylard, Anna Clarke and Mrs. W. D. Brown.

Party at Golf Club

There were thirty tables of players at the bridge party last evening at the Victoria Golf Club, Oak Bay, and the affair proved one of the most enjoyable social affairs held at the club this season. The main lounge and dining-room were arranged with masses of Canterbury bells, syringa and delphiniums, while in the ladies' lounge great bowls of spirea, delphiniums and other Summer flowers carried out the color scheme of the room. A buffet supper was served from a long table in the dining-room, on which a large silver bowl filled with pink roses and pink antirrhinum was flanked by matching candles in silver candelabra. Prizes were given for highest score for ladies and gentlemen. Conveners of the party were Mrs. C. W. Pangman (ladies' captain), Mrs. R. J. Tyhurst, Mrs. Arthur K. Mitchell, Mrs. L. O. Howard, Mrs. W. A. R. Hadley, Mrs. J. D. Laurie and Mrs. H. A. Tomalin.

Cup and Saucer Shower

A delightful cup and saucer shower took place recently when Mrs. George Ball entertained in honor of her sister-in-law, Miss Mae Ball, who is to be married next month to Mr. George Butler, of Portland. The gifts were concealed under a pale pink and green decorated bell. Games were enjoyed during the evening, the prize winners being Mrs. E. Orrick and Miss Connie Orrick. The invited guests were Mrs. J. Ball, Mrs. L. Fishlock, Mrs. E. Orrick, Mrs. R. Glass, Mrs. H. Walker, Mrs. A. Veales, Mrs. G. Boulton, Misses C. Orrick, G. Ball, E. Fishlock, E. Robinson, V. Rowland and J. Veales.

Entertains at Tea

Mrs. S. W. Barclay, Rockland Avenue, entertained at tea on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. H. S. Kerr, who is here from Vancouver in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Webster, Eberts Street. The lace-covered table was centred with a bowl of pink and mauve sweet peas. Mrs. S. Barclay, Jr., poured tea. The invited guests were Mrs. J. Fidler, Mrs. Jack Gilla, Mrs. J. L. Thompson, Mrs. T. Coles, Mrs. S. Barclay, Jr., Mrs. G. Ritchie, Mrs. W. Edwards, Mrs. Alex Webster and Miss Myra Edwards.

Friends Entertain

Mrs. Neil Jensen and Mrs. Lucille DeSmet were hostesses at Mrs. DeSmet's home recently at a kitchen shower for Miss Yolanda Stradiotto, whose marriage will take place today. The guests were Mrs. L. Demoni, Mrs. M. McLaren, Mrs. J. Nutall, Mrs. Mossey, Mrs. Margaret Mossey, Mrs. A. Moras, Miss T.

Moras, Mrs. A. Stevens, Sr.; Mrs. A. Stevens, Jr.; Mrs. W. Crawford, Mrs. J. Patterson and Mrs. N. Hansen.

July Bride Honored

Miss Ardath Vardley, San Carlos Avenue, entertained at a "kitchen" shower on Thursday night for Miss Margaret Jones, a popular bride-to-be. Other guests included Misses Mildred Jones, Ruth Norton, Roma Dorman, Marjorie Brown, Mary Angus, Thelma Ackerman, Kathleen Kermode, Elza Lovitt, Gladwyn Beasley, Ivy Brown, Gwen Burton, May Miller, Helen Baird and Muriel Winterbottom.

To Leave for England

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Van Eck and Miss Gladys Van Eck, Tweedsmuir Apartments, will leave on Tuesday for Vancouver, en route to Montreal, to sail aboard the Ss. Montcalm for England. After visiting in London, they will proceed to Holland and expect to return to Victoria early in September.

Honored at Tea

Miss Elizabeth Macdonald, a July bride-to-be, was the guest of honor yesterday afternoon when Miss Marianna Fraser entertained at a delightful tea at her home on Despard Avenue. Clove pinks formed the fragrant centerpiece for the prettily arranged tea table.

Here on Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ford, San Francisco, have arrived here on their wedding trip and are staying at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Ford is the son of Mr. E. T. Ford, president of the Grace Line, and he and his bride have been staying at Banff and Lake Louise.

Visitors From South

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mills, Mr. Freeman Mills and Miss Margaret Mills, Lodi, Cal., were guests at Sunset Inn, Qualicum Beach, during the week. Mr. Mills, who owns large peach orchards in the South, expects to harvest 2,500 tons of peaches this season.

At Qualicum

A party of Californians enjoying a vacation at Qualicum Beach include Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Williams, Alameda; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley

Emerson, Miss D. Dorward and Miss F. Kahn, Oakland. They are registered at the Sunset Inn.

Guests Arrive

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Hay, King George Terrace, have as their guests for several weeks Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Winterton, who arrived yesterday from Saskatoon and were accompanied by their small sons, Billy and Douglas Winterton.

Hostess at Party

Mrs. Biggerstaff Wilson entertained at a cocktail party at her home on Rockland Avenue in honor of her daughter, Mrs. T. E. Lampman, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Clarence Pitts, who is here from Ashcroft.

To Leave Vernon Villa

Mr. Calvin A. Laskey, who has been a patient in Vernon Villa, will leave on Sunday for Mount Oile, B.C., where he will visit his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Laskey and family.

At James Bay Hotel

Mr. Isaac M. Wise has arrived from Cincinnati to spend two months in Victoria. He is at the James Bay Hotel.

Entertains Before Dance

THE "MARKED WOMAN" COMING TO CAPITOL

Noteworthy in several respects is the first National melodrama, "Marked Woman," starring Bette Davis and featuring Humphrey Bogart and Eduardo Ciannelli in addition to a number of other prominent players, which comes to the Capitol Theatre Monday.

It brings back to the screen, after a rather extended holiday, the slim blonde emotional actress who last year won the coveted gold statuette of Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for the best performance by any feminine player.

Ciannelli, the menacing villain of "Winter's," plays the head man of the rackets, and Humphrey Bogart, who was one of the traitorous "Black Legion" in his last screen appearance, is the fearless prosecutor.

Manitoba Basket Picnic Will Be Held on July 7

The annual Manitoba basket picnic will be held at Mount Douglas Park on Wednesday, July 7, at 2:30 p.m. All former residents of Manitoba and their friends are cordially welcome. Tea and coffee will be provided. Buses will leave from in front of the city library, Yates Street, at 2:30 p.m.

The teacher was telling her open-eyed class about the dolphin and its habits.

"And children," she said, impressively, "just think, a single dolphin will have two thousand baby dolphins."

"Goodness!" exclaimed the bright little girl at the bottom of the class, "how many do the married ones have?"

What Today Means

"CANCER"

If June 26 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., from 2:45 to 4:45 p.m., and from 8:45 to 10:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m., from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m., and from 10:45 p.m. until midnight.

Avoid keeping people waiting this day if you do not wish to cause irritation. Uncontrolled tongues will be the day's principal trouble-makers. Unimportant trifles are apt to start the most acrimonious arguments, so be careful not to complain without ample reason to back your grievance. Personal peculiarities may be quite noticeable this day, and should be tactfully overlooked, if possible. Be food conscious and express appreciation for any culinary efforts made in your behalf, if you would avoid giving offence to anyone trying to please your palate. Married and engaged couples, and those entertaining matrimonial intentions, should avoid going into gruesome details regarding anything unpleasant this day if they wish to have a cheerful, carefree companion.

If a woman and June 26 is your birthday, you will have many devoted and loyal friends. Any social ambitions you may have are likely to be realized. Money may come your way in some very surprising manner.

You seem predestined to share many luxuries with someone near and dear to you, possibly your husband. Welcome advice. It might lead you in the right direction where your big opportunity will be. It is important that you cultivate the habit of being cheerful, for only by looking on the sunny side of things will you discover the trail that leads to happiness. Overcome any tendency to speak sharply, or complainingly. Temperamentally you may be best fitted to be a professional entertainer, actress, missionary, broker, private secretary, office manager, teacher or trained nurse. The child born on June 26 should, during adolescence, display definite signs of mental and physical development. Perhaps through some intellectual or artistic achievement success will be attained by this youngster.

If a man and June 26 is your natal day, by gradual degrees you ought to make the grade that will lead to some worthwhile achievement. As a chemist, scientist, actor, preacher, lecturer, salesman, politician or lawyer, money and a fine reputation might be won by you.

POLICE PADLOCK PREMISES
VANCOUVER, June 25 (P)—Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson, in police court yesterday, granted applications to "dry squad" members of the city police department to padlock three premises where tenants were alleged to be selling liquor illegally.

Cardinals Whip Giants to Hold Second Position

St. Louis Nine Hands Bill Terry's Boys 9-4 Shel-lacking for Seventeenth Win in Last Twenty Starts—Cubs Come Through—Yanks Widen Lead—Red Sox Triumph Again

NATIONAL LEAGUE

ST. LOUIS, June 25 (P).—The Cardinals walloped the New York Giants 9-4 in the opener of their series for second place in the National League today. The win gained through a fourteen-hit attack and effective pitching by Lon Warneke, left the Cards only a game out of first place and two full games in front of the slipping Giants, and marked the seventeenth victory for the star house gang in its last twenty starts.

Ducky Medwick, with his sixteenth homer and a double, and Rookie Dod Padgett, with a homer and single, led the Card attack, but every man in the line-up, including Warneke, with a double and single, hit safely.

Clyde Castleman, who has been the Giants' most dependable flinger in recent weeks, was belted out in less than three innings, and Al Smith had little better luck.

Warneke, winning his ninth game of the season and his third over the Giants, was virtually "untouchable" with men on the bases. The New Yorkers collected twelve hits, including eight doubles, but left ten men stranded.

R. H. E. New York 001 010 000—4 12 0 St. Louis 232 020 000—9 14 1 Batteries—Castleman, Smith, Baker, and Mancuso; Diggins, Warneke and Ogdowski.

Phil's Trim Pirates
PITTSBURGH, June 25 (P).—Philadelphia pounded out a 10-5 victory over the Pirates today, jumping on their former teammate, Joe Bowman, for seven runs in three innings.

Earle Browne's three-run homer in the first inning started the drive. R. H. E. Philadelphia 313 000 201—10 14 0 Pittsburgh 000 102 020—5 12 1 Batteries—Lamaster, Jorgens and Atwood; Bowman, Bauers, Weaver, Tobin and Todd.

Hold Top Place
CHICAGO, June 25 (P).—The Cubs caught up with "Fat" Freddy Fitzsimmons and the Dodgers today and clubbed out an 11-2 victory over the Brooklyn in a battle of home runs.

Fitzsimmons was no match for the Cubs' newly-found power hitting. The victory allowed the Cubs to maintain their hold on first place in the National League. R. H. E. Brooklyn 000 000 001—2 5 1 Chicago 103 400 030—11 11 0 Batteries—Fitzsimmons, Birkner and Phelps; Carleton and Hartnett, Bottarini.

Plays Centre Half For the Royals

TREVOR HARVEY

CLEVER centre half for the New Westminster Royals, Canadian soccer champions, who will be on his team's intermediate rank this afternoon when they face Victoria City in the Dominion Challenge Cup series at Macdonald Park at 3:30.

Harvey is rated as the smartest half-back in the province. He will be working with Dick Soon, sensational Chinese player, and Jimmy Gemmell, and this trio should be a constant worry to the local forwards.

Larocca Triumphs
OAKLAND, June 25 (P).—Jack Larocca, Oakland pitcher, shook the soreness out of his arm and went to the aid of Al Piechota in the first inning of tonight's baseball game to hurt the Oaks to a 10-8 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

R. H. E. Los Angeles 8 11 1 Oakland 10 12 1 Batteries—Prim, Overman and Collins; Piechota, Larocca and Raimondi.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
TORONTO, June 25 (P).—Tom Oliver's long three-bagger with the bases filled in the eighth inning sparked a four-run Toronto rally which gave the Maple Leafs a 7-6 verdict over Rochester Red Wings tonight.

R. H. E. Rochester 131 000 001—6 7 1 Toronto 000 020 140—7 13 2 Batteries—Judd, Kirk and O'Farrell; Mulligan, Berley, Nekola, Caldwell and Heath.

COAST LEAGUE
SAN DIEGO, June 25 (P).—Behind the four-hit pitching of Howard Craghead, San Diego's Padres whipped Portland, 6-1, here today, to chalk up their seventh straight Coast League victory and their fourth in a row over the Beavers, clinching the seven-game series.

The Padres went on a scoring orgy in the first inning, driving Charlie Moncrief to the showers with a four-run, four-hit blast. "Hobo" Carson replaced Moncrief and was fairly effective. R. H. E. Portland 1 4 1 San Diego 6 10 0 Batteries—Moncrief, Carson and Cronin; Craghead and Starr.

Sac Win Another
SACRAMENTO, June 25 (P).—Bill Schmidt donned a pair of glasses tonight and pitched Sacramento to a 5-3 victory over the San Francisco Missions for the third Sacramento win in a row. R. H. E. Missions 3 9 1 Sacramento 5 11 1 Batteries—Herrmann and Outen; Schmidt and Franks.

O'Doul to Rescue
SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (P).—Lefty O'Doul, manager of the San Francisco Seals, cracked out a long hit with the bases loaded to score two runs in the sixth inning and give his team a 4-2 victory here to-

Gloucestershire Displaces Derbyshire in Old Country Standings

LONDON, June 25 (P).—Positions at the top of English county cricket championship remain virtually unchanged as the result of the series of matches concluded yesterday and today. Gloucestershire moved into fourth place ahead of Derbyshire through its victory over Kent yesterday, but behind Yorkshire, Sussex and Nottinghamshire.

Glamorgan downed Worcester-shire by nine wickets and Somerset was beaten by Essex by 161 runs. Lancashire finished with six wickets margin over last-place Northamptonshire. Yorkshire snatched first innings points from Leicester-shire in a high-scoring game and Hampshire also was ahead on the first innings against Derbyshire.

The match between Sussex and Cambridge University ended in a draw.

THE SCORES
Worcestershire 123 and 360 (Martin 92); Glamorgan 417 and 70 for one wicket; at Swansea.

Essex 119 and 373; Somerset 94 and 237 (Longrigg 75, not out); at Ilford.

Northamptonshire 168 and 274 (Outhbertson 96); Lancashire 234 and 211 for four wickets (Washbrook 121, not out; at Northampton.

Yorkshire 523 for three wickets; Leicestershire 77 for four wickets; Leicestershire (Dempster 146, Watson 122); at Hull.

Hampshire 347 and 199 for one wicket; declared (Arnold 105, not out); Derbyshire 265 and 172 for seven wickets; at Chesterfield.

Sussex 317 and 314 for eight wickets; declared (Bartlett 122, Hunt five for 91); Cambridge University 314 and 204 for four wickets (Studd 80, not out); at Worthing.

FORMER WALKER CUP MEMBERS WILL MEET FOR AMATEUR CROWN

Portland Shotmaker Faces Defending Champion In Scheduled Thirty-Six-Hole Final at Tacoma—Moe Upsets Westland, 7 and 5—Givan Beats Lyman—Nancy Hurst Is Defeated

TACOMA, June 25 (P).—Two men who have designs on the national amateur golf championship this year, Don Moe, of Portland, and Harry Givan, of Seattle, fought their way into the final of the Pacific Northwest amateur tournament at the Tacoma Country and Golf Club here today.

Moe, playing some of the greatest golf of his career, tossed too many birds at Jack Westland, of Seattle, and the former Walker Cupper, Washington State, French and Western champion, went down to defeat, seven and five.

Givan, defending champion in the meet, although spraying a few more shots here and there, eliminated Fred Lyman, Seattle, the big surprise boy of the field, three and two.

Tomorrow, Moe and Givan, also former Walker Cuppers, clash in the thirty-six-hole final.

At the first turn of the thirty-six-hole journey, Moe was leading Jack Westland, one up. Moe, who whacked four strokes off par with a 68 yesterday, continued to beat perfect figures with a thirty-six on the out nine, one below par. Westland, who arrived at the first tee an hour late due to misunderstanding of starting times, had a thirty-eight.

Moe moved out in front at the sixth with a par when Westland was trapped, but the Seattle golfer came back on the next hole to ram down a twelve-footer for a birdie. Westland went one down at the eighth when he took a big five as his approach went over the green and he had to play back under a tree.

BRILLIANT GOLF
The Portlander continued brilliant golf on the back nine and reached the end of the morning round, five up. He stroked his way home in thirty-two, while Westland, had a thirty-seven for a 75 against Moe's 68. Moe coasted home after lunch.

Churches and Their World-Wide Work

TO BEGIN WORK AFTER ILLNESS

Rev. A. deB. Owen Will Preach at Free Church Of England Sunday

After five months' absence on account of illness, Rev. A. deB. Owen will return to his pulpit work tomorrow at the Church of Our Lord. At both the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services Holy Communion will be administered.

In connection with this notice, Mr. Owen desires to express his very warm thanks for the kindnesses he received from many friends both while in the hospital and since. It has been a great encouragement to him to find so warm a response in the hearts of the citizens.

During his convalescence Mr. Owen visited relatives near Denver, Colorado.

WILL CONCLUDE SERMON SERIES

Rev. Andrew D. Reid, at Centennial United Church on Sunday at 11 a.m., will administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, taking for the sermon subject "The Wounds of Christ." The choir will render the anthem "Come Unto Him" (Gounod).

At the evening service Dr. Reid will deliver the final of the series of sermons on "The Ten Commandments." Howells Jeffery will give a selected solo, and the choir's contribution will be the anthem "O Come, Let Us Worship" (Mendelssohn), with solo part by George F. H. Farmer.

Of the six ministers of the United Church of Canada who relinquish their work in this city during the present year, three will preach their farewell sermons tomorrow. They are Rev. E. F. Church, who after six years at Metropolitan Church, goes to Chown Memorial, Vancouver, whose minister, Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, comes to the Metropolitan pulpit. Rev. F. W. Anderson is giving up Esquimalt Naval and Military Church to retire from the active ministry, remaining in the city. He will be succeeded by Rev. James Hood, who has been pastor of Belmont Avenue Church for the last ten years. Rev. Dr. Gerald B. Switzer went to West Point Grey in the Spring and Rev. E. W. Horton earlier this month terminated their ministries at Fairfield and First Churches respectively.

MAINLAND BAND WILL PLAY HERE

All Day Music Will Feature Salvation Army Jubilee Services Sunday

This week-end the Victoria Corps of the Salvation Army is celebrating the actual dates on which the work in this city was commenced fifty years ago. Tomorrow is therefore the golden jubilee.

One of the principal bands of the Salvation Army in Canada, the Vancouver Citadel Band, will be at the Citadel all day to accompany the congregational singing and play the offertory selections. During the morning service the band will play "Pleasure Complete" (Gounod), which is the theme of the euphonium section of the band, the band vocal quartette party will sing, and the full band will play "Perfect Trust" (Ball).

During the afternoon, the band will play at Beacon Hill Park, and after the service at night they will conduct a sacred programme at the Show Boat.

During the night meeting at the Citadel a beautiful tone poem will be played, entitled "Streams in the Desert," a composition of the present international leader of the Salvation Army, General Evangeline Booth.

Conduct of the services will be in the hands of Brigadier A. E. Dalsiel, the divisional commander of the Salvation Army in southern B.C., and assisting him will be Adjutant P. Zarfas, the officer in charge of Vancouver Citadel, to which the visiting band belongs. Other officers will be Adjutant and Mrs. Ede, the local officers, and departmental officers of the Army in the city.

Beach Services At Cordova Bay

Rev. G. R. V. Bolster, of St. John's Church, will speak at the first of a series of Sunday afternoon beach services to be held tomorrow at Cordova Bay (McMoran's pavilion) at 3:30 o'clock. These meetings are interdenominational and evangelistic in character. There will be music and brief testimonies.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the close of both morning and evening services.

REV. A. THOMSON TO BE SPEAKER

Noted English Preacher Will Close Brief Ministry at Fairfield United

Rev. Alexander Thomson, the noted Congregational preacher of Canterbury, England, will again conduct the services in Fairfield United Church tomorrow. This may be the last opportunity the people of Victoria will have of hearing this earnest and gifted minister.

In the morning Mr. Thomson will speak on "The Higher Gate." Mrs. Archie Wills will be the soloist, and the choir will sing the anthem, "O Saviour of the World" (Goss).
In the evening, Mr. Thomson will speak on "The Real Sense of Christianity." Miss Estelle Clarke will sing "I Come to Thee" (Caro Roma), and the choir will render "Behold the King" (Gounod).

FALL OF BABYLON TO BE PORTRAYED

E. E. Richards Will Connect Spanish War With Prophecy Regarding Coming Kingdom of Christ

"The Fall of the Throne of Babylon and the Setting-up of the Kingdom of Christ" will be the subject of E. E. Richards' address to be given under the auspices of the British-Israel World Federation, on Monday at 8 p.m. in the Campbell Building.

Mr. Richards will discuss the Biblical picture of the throne of Babylon and its evil influence in the world, the offer of the kingdoms of the world to Christ and the activities of Satanist power in Europe at the present time. The shocking Spanish struggle will be cited by the speaker as a sample of Babylonian mentality within the Christian fold. The fall of Babylon and the setting-up of the kingdom of Christ over the world as something to be looked for in the near future will be pictured by the speaker.

MINISTER WILL SAY FAREWELL

Rev. E. Church at Metropolitan—Dean Quanton in The Evening

In Metropolitan United Church tomorrow morning Rev. E. F. Church, B.A., will preach his farewell sermon to the Metropolitan congregation, this bringing to a close a very successful and profitable pastorate.

Mr. Church came to Metropolitan from Zion Church, Moose Jaw, six years ago, and he has recently accepted an invitation to become pastor of Chown Memorial Church, Vancouver. Mr. Church's departure will be keenly felt not only by his own people and in the religious life of the city, but also in the civil life and the clubs to which he belonged.

His sermon subject will be "My Farewell to Metropolitan," based on the text from Philippians 1, verse 9. The anthem for the morning service will be "I Saw the Lord" (Harris). Mrs. E. Ridgway will sing "Just for Today" (Seaver), and Dr. T. Harry Johns will sing "Thanks Be to God" (Dickson).

The evening service will be conducted by Rev. E. F. Church, and Dean Quanton, of Christ Church Cathedral, will be the guest preacher. The music will be as follows: Anthem, "I Will Lay Me Down" (Tertius Noble); solo, "Song of Peace" (Stanford); Miss Dorothy Parsons; solo, "Give Thanks and Sing" (Harris); H. L. Harmsworth; Dr. Willard Breving, Vancouver, will be the preacher for the first three Sundays of July.

YOUNG MEN WILL GIVE LEADERSHIP

Young People's Rally to Feature Evening Service Tomorrow at Central Baptist Church

At the Central Baptist Church on Sunday evening, the service will take the form of a young people's rally, to which all young men and women are cordially invited.
Percy Wright will preside, and short addresses will be given by William Sloan, president of the Young People's Union, and Fred Frewing, who has just returned from Dallas, Texas, having completed his third year of studies at Dr. Schaefer's Bible School. Special musical numbers will be rendered bearing a definite gospel message.

In the morning the subject of God's mercy will be dealt with.
On July 7 the Wheaton College Crusaders will be at Central Baptist Church for one meeting only, with vocal and instrumental numbers and personal testimonies.

AMBULANCE GROUP GO TO ST. JOHN'S

Canon Chadwick Will Give Address To Local Branch of St. John Brigade

"Christian Science" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The golden text is: "The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea" (Isaiah XL 9).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people" (Matthew IV, 23).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Truth, Life and Love gave Jesus authority over sin, sickness and death. His mission was to reveal the Science of celestial being, to prove what God is and what He does for man."

TO QUERY END OF CONFUSION

Rev. Dr. Davies Will Review Present-Day Conditions in Europe

"Distress of Nations—With Perplexity" will be the theme of Dr. Clem Davies at his Empire Ministry on Government Street tomorrow night.

Dr. Davies will inquire into the world situation as follows: "How is the present steel strike a fulfillment of Holy Scripture prophecy?" "What is the fate of France prefigured in prophecy and indicated in the events of her present financial crisis?"

"What does prophecy have to say concerning the arrest of Protestant Church leaders, and persecution of Catholic priests in Germany?" "What is impelling Germany to demand stringent measures against Spain?"

"Does Scripture prophecy indicate that Russia will conquer the air in the North and become a menace to Anglo-Saxon nations?" "Will Britain shortly withdraw from the non-intervention committee, and why must she withdraw soon if Britain is a part of the Israel nation?" "Are we as safe in British Columbia and Washington from European war-threat as we thought, in view of the recent Moscow to Vancouver flight?" "Why are all the nations in a cauldron of trouble, anxiety and confusion? What is the underlying cause and how is it going to end?"

Dr. Davies will conduct divine service at 11 a.m

Gad Jeeves, This Beats Rowing!

THE TUTTS ... By Crawford YoungJane Dixon Says:

A SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL, WHO WORKS HARD IN HER HOME, RECEIVES NO ENCOURAGEMENT FROM HER FAMILY BECAUSE SHE WANTS TO EARN ENOUGH MONEY TO CONTINUE IN SCHOOL NEXT WINTER

Dear Jane Dixon: I am a girl of seventeen, still in school. My problem is that I want to work. This may sound simple enough, but I assure you it is not so easy for a girl who knows nothing about obtaining a job.

I want to work, and I know I can succeed if only I can get started. It doesn't matter what kind of work I get just so it is honorable, and will help me earn money through my summer vacation so I can continue in school next winter. It would be such a wonderful satisfaction to know I am doing something for myself.

TRUE TO HER IDEALS

I love pretty clothes and good times, but life has given me few of either. Even though life has been very dull and my home is isolated, I have held to my ideals and tried to be a lady.

Of course, I realize that success does not mean just making money. My greatest ambition is to do something that will make the world better for my having lived in it. But, Miss Dixon, how can I do this without having some chance to know the world? How can I be happy when every bite I eat and all the clothing I wear, are given to me by my father and brother, who never let me forget that they are making sacrifices for me? I work hard in my home and try to earn my living. I don't want to be bitter against my family, but I feel I must get a job to do my part. My family will never help me do this, though they are always telling me if I can do better to go ahead.

If I do not get work, I'm afraid I can not finish school. Please advise me what to do.—Bobby.

Comment: You have a worthy ambition, Bobby, and it is your right to make every effort to achieve it.

Go to those who you think might have work for you to do, and ask them to give you an opportunity to do it. Explain the purpose of your seeking employment, that you wish to earn money to complete your schooling. Take any job offered, however menial, so long as you feel you can give to it an honest effort.

FAMILY'S ATTITUDE IS WRONG

The attitude of your father and your brother is both unfortunate and unfair. Deprivation of self in order to benefit those we love should not be regarded as a sacrifice, but as a privilege.

Your father's duty is to provide your living until you have reached an age and an estate in which you can support yourself. I have no doubt, after reading your letter, that you earn your clothes, food and shelter, and that they therefore are payments for labor, not free gifts.

Every normal girl of your age longs for pretty clothes and for the good times young people are expected to enjoy. The fact that you are not only ready, but willing, to put your shoulder to the wheel and earn your own happiness is to your great credit. Your family should have the good grace to encourage you and to lend you every assistance in achieving your ambition. Their failure to do so puts the matter directly up to you, so take your ideals in one hand and your determination in the other, and set forth in search of the work that will solve your problem. You'll find it!

FLEW NON-STOP IN FLYING BOAT

Richard Archbold and Five Others Inaugurated Something New in Transcontinental Air Travel

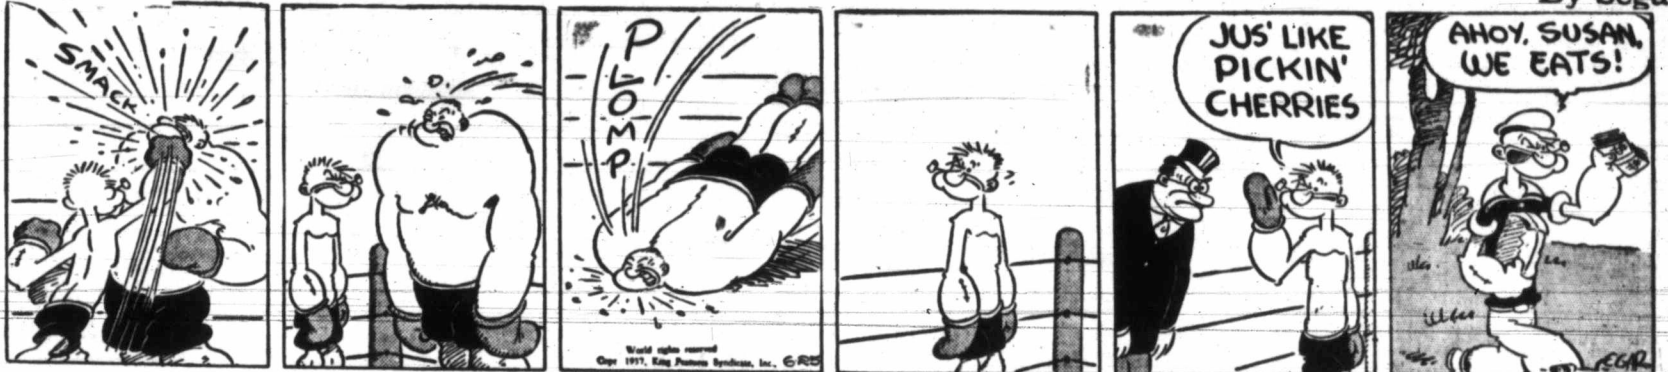

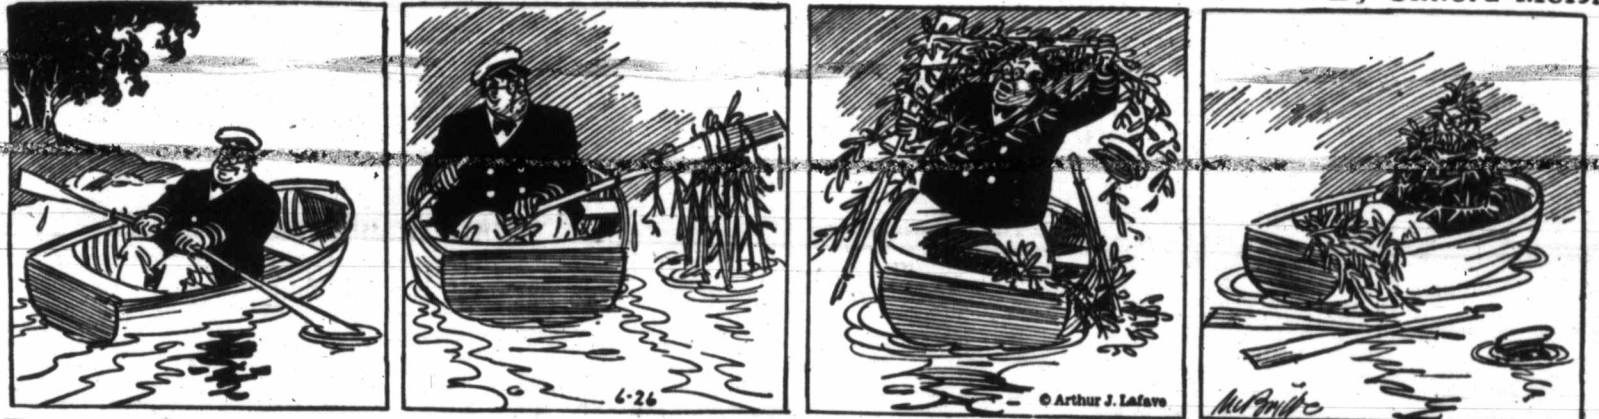

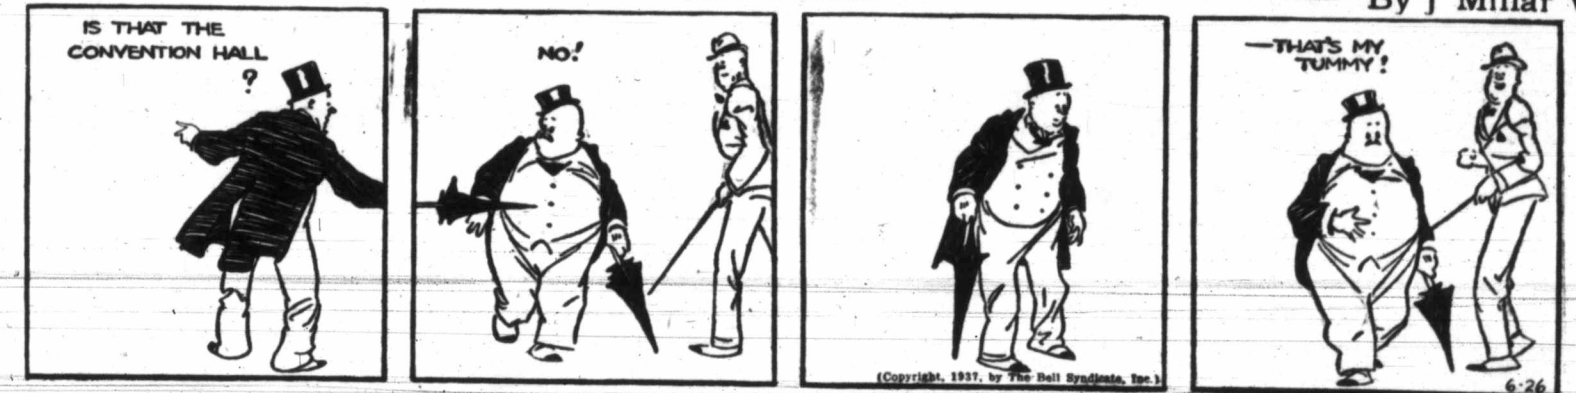

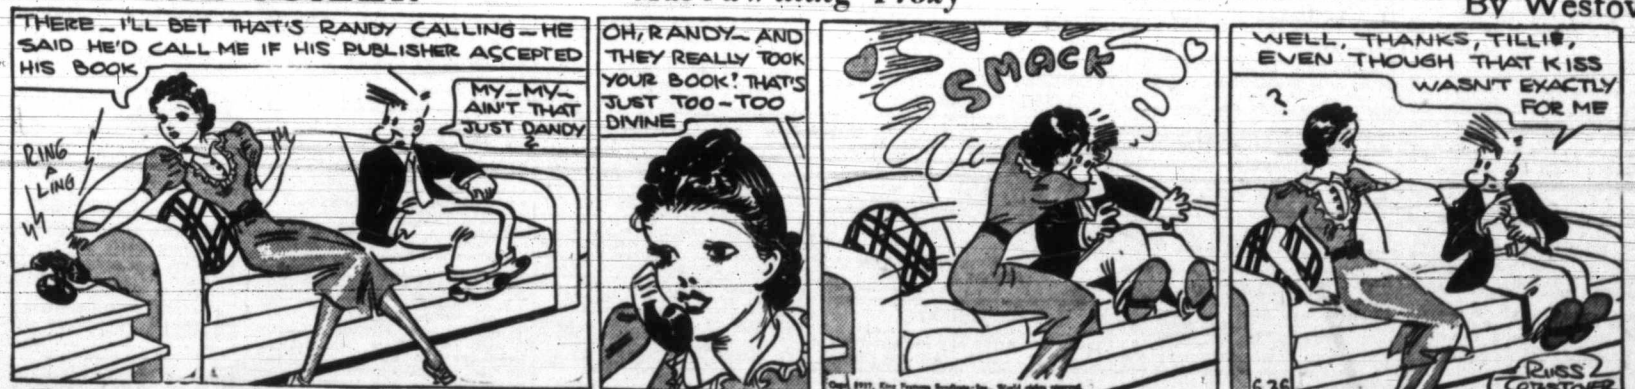

NEW YORK, June 25 (P).—Richard Archbold, research associate of the American Museum of Natural History, dropped down on the waters of Flushing Bay at 9:34:30 (P.S.T.)

today with a seventeen-ton flying boat to inaugurate something new in transcontinental travel.

With five other men he had flown non-stop from San Diego, Cal., in seventeen hours and three and a half minutes.

He found no occasion to land on a lake or river on the way and described the trip as "practically perfect."

Whether he broke any records for his type of aircraft remained to be determined by officials of the National Aeronautic Association who checked him in.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

STRONG WILL IS THE BIGGEST FACTOR IN SUCCESSFULLY REDUCING WEIGHT

A physician doing special work on metabolism (rate at which the body processes work) tells his patients that very few overweights need any drug or gland extract; that the overweight is simply the result of overeating, and there is no use making any attempt to reduce weight unless they are willing to cut down to a large extent on the daily intake of food. If they are unwilling to cut down on the food intake for the sake of their appearance he then warns them of the danger of overweight.

Thus, at the obesity or overweight clinic at the Mount Sinai Hospital, Dr. Charles Markson gives every patient full information in printed form, as follows:

"Overweight increases the strain on the heart and kidneys. This extra strain often results in diseases of the heart, bloodvessels and kidneys. Overweight, aside from causing fatigue and bodily discomfort, is also known to be an important factor in causing diabetes.

These complications generally appear after the age of forty. To lessen these dangers and so increase your chances of health and long life, you must begin early and make a serious and constant effort to keep your weight at a normal level.

A strong will is the first essential in the reduction treatment of overweight. You must learn to use or exercise this strong will, otherwise the result is bound to be disappointing.

Drugs which help to reduce weight are very dangerous and must only be taken when prescribed by your doctor. When taking these drugs you must report to the clinic as often as requested.

See that you get plenty of fresh air.

Do not take more than five glasses of fluid a day, to include any form of liquid—water, soup, milk, tea, coffee, soft or hard drinks. A steam bath once or twice a week is helpful.

Take cold showers frequently; this increases the body's energy expenditure.

Keep bowels active with Epsom salts twice a week.

Exercise is essential, particularly for those who usually sit down most of the day. The ideal form of exercise is walking. Begin with a brisk walk for one-half hour, gradually increasing the length of time by ten minutes a day until it has reached two hours.

A diet of about 1,250 calories (about half the average diet) per day is given, and patients are advised that the first two weeks will be the hardest; if they stick to it, the body and digestive organs will become adjusted to the small diet, and after these first two weeks life will look worth while again.

B.C. LUMBER EXPORT FAIR

United Kingdom Remains Province's Best Customer In Waterborne Trade

Despite higher cargo rates, the United Kingdom remained British Columbia's best customer for lumber in May, when $4,000,000 board feet were ordered and delivered from British Columbia mills to Great Britain in the waterborne trade.

Total lumber exports by water for the month were $5,400,000 board feet, approximately the same as in May last year, provincial reports disclosed yesterday.

Of the total, 78,100,000 board feet were shipped to British and foreign destinations overseas, and 17,200,000 board feet to points on this continent, including 14,200,000 board feet sold on the Atlantic seaboard.

Australia took nearly 10,000,000 board feet in May, China 5,200,000 board feet, Japan 2,500,000 board feet, British West Indies nearly 3,000,000 board feet, with smaller lots to many other destinations. The figures are exclusive of rail haul and domestic sales within the province.

SOUTH PARK HAS SCHOOL DISPLAY

Annual Event Held Under Auspices Of James Bay Parent-Teacher Association

South Park School's annual manual training and domestic science display was held on Friday afternoon under auspices of the James Bay Parent-Teacher Association. Guests were welcomed by Mrs. E. Ingledew, president of the association.

Domestic science was judged by Mrs. F. O. Skillings and Miss Peto, Winnipeg. Leonard Campbell judged the manual training exhibit. Mr. Campbell was manual training teacher at the school twenty-five years ago.

Following a parade of girls wearing home-made dresses, prizes were awarded Doreen Nute and Edna Christianson. Clifford Carter and Joseph Muldrew received awards for their manual training work. Members of the school choir sang several selections, following which afternoon tea was served.

Directed by J. T. Ross, the school cadets gave a drill exhibition, tumbling and first aid at Beacon Hill Park in the morning.

Beads in single or double strands are being sold freely to wear with sweater suits.
